JOHN C. DEPP, II

Plaintiff,

v.

AMBER LAURA HEARD

Defendant.

Civil Action No.: CL-2019-0002911

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO DISMISS
PURSUANT TO VA. CODE § 8.01-265(i)

COMES NOW, by special appearance, Defendant Amber Laura Heard (“Ms. Heard”), by her undersigned counsel, and, pursuant to Virginia Code section 8.01-265(i), hereby moves to dismiss the Complaint because the only issues to be resolved in this litigation center on events, witnesses, and premises, all of which are located in Los Angeles, California, making Virginia an inappropriate venue. In support of her Motion to Dismiss, Ms. Heard states as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

Johnny Depp regularly abused Amber Heard—both physically and emotionally—throughout much of their relationship. The vast majority of these violent incidents occurred when Mr. Depp was drunk or high or both in their Los Angeles, California home or while the couple was traveling abroad. Ms. Heard eventually found herself forced to file for divorce, sought and obtained a domestic violence restraining order against Mr. Depp, and freed herself from the abusive relationship.

After the ensuing media frenzy—in which Mr. Depp distorted the truth for public consumption—Ms. Heard resolved to fight for the victims of domestic violence, and to do everything in her power to fight back against the silencing of abuse victims. She became the American Civil Liberties Union’s Ambassador for Women’s Rights, and now speaks at conferences worldwide about how to combat this pernicious and insidious issue affecting millions, if not billions of women and men worldwide.

In December of 2018, Ms. Heard authored an Op-Ed about domestic violence. Her article does not mention Mr. Depp. Moreover, as Mr. Depp concedes, every sentence in that Op-Ed is literally true. Notwithstanding, in an all-too-transparent ploy to stanch the ongoing damage to his reputation as a Hollywood star, Mr. Depp used the Op-Ed as a pretext to sue Ms. Heard. He now claims—as a means of alleging defamation against Ms. Heard—that he has dozens of witnesses (notably, all of whom are located in Los Angeles, California) who will testify that one particular incident of abuse is “demonstrably untrue” and a “hoax.”

Of course, Mr. Depp’s claims are an attempt to mislead the trier of fact into thinking that one incident in 2016—out of dozens of violent episodes throughout the couple’s relationship—is the only possible basis for Ms. Heard’s perspective as a domestic abuse victim. Ms. Heard’s primary defense—the truth—will be proven when this bad faith defamation action is adjudicated on its merits. For now, however, it simply need be noted that the issues, witnesses, and premises that will prove the truth of Ms. Heard’s defenses are all located in Los Angeles, California. Because an examination of such evidence could not be performed by this Court in Fairfax, Virginia, Ms. Heard respectfully requests that this Court dismiss this case on grounds of forum non conveniens, so that Mr. Depp’s meritless claims may be tried and disposed of, once and for all, in Los Angeles, California.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Pursuant to Virginia Code section 8.01-265(i), a court may “dismiss an action brought by a person who is not a resident of the Commonwealth without prejudice under such conditions as the court deems appropriate if the cause of action arose outside of the Commonwealth and if the court determines that a more convenient forum which has jurisdiction over all parties is available in a jurisdiction other than the Commonwealth.” The decision of whether or not to dismiss and transfer such a case is “within the sound discretion of the trial judge.” Va. Code § 8.01-267.

III. ARGUMENT

A. Plaintiff’s Complaint Alleges Only One Claim, Which Arose In California

Despite Plaintiff’s attempt to disguise his Complaint as three separate causes of action, in reality, Plaintiff asserts only one defamation claim based on a single Op-Ed appearing in the Washington Post. That claim is subject to dismissal under Virginia Code § 8.01-265(i) because the claim arose in California and because California is the far more convenient forum for this litigation.

1. Plaintiff Asserts Only One Defamation Claim

Depp seeks to prosecute three redundant defamation claims arising out of a single Op-Ed written by Ms. Heard and published in the same edition (though in different media) of the Washington Post. However, Virginia follows the “single publication rule” in defamation cases. See Armstrong v. Bank of Am., 61 Va. Cir. 131 (2003) (citing Myska v. RMS Technologies, Inc., 25 Va. Cir. 344 (Fairfax, Oct. 21, 1991) (“Under the single publication rule, ‘[a]ny one edition of a book or newspaper, or any one radio or television broadcast, exhibition of a motion picture or similar aggregate communication is a single publication.”)). The single publication rule “was adopted in recognition of the vast multiplicity of suits which could arise from mass publications which transcend a variety of medias and state lines, and the attendant problems of choice of law, indefinite liability, and endless tolling of the statute of limitations.” Myska v. RMS Techs., Inc., 25 Va. Cir. 344 (1991) (quoting Khaury v. Playboy Publications, 450 F. Supp. 1342, 1354

(S.D.N.Y. 1977)).<sup>1</sup> Because each of Plaintiff's claims is expressly premised on the publication of a single Op-Ed that appeared in a single edition of the Washington Post across different media, Plaintiff asserts only a single defamation claim. (See Compl. ¶¶ 75, 86, 97 (premising three separate claims on the same edition of the Washington Post).)

2. Plaintiff's Defamation Claim Arose Outside Virginia

Plaintiff's single claim for defamation undoubtedly arose outside of Virginia. Regardless of whether Virginia or some other law applies to determine where a defamation claim "arises," the single, multistate mass media claim at issue here arises in California.

Applying Virginia law, a federal district court squarely addressed where a multistate, mass media defamation claim arises:

Virginia follows the "traditional" choice-of-law approach: it applies the lex loci delicti, or the law of the place of the tort, to issues of substantive law. See Jones v. R.S. Jones & Assoc's, Inc., 246 Va. 3, 5, 431 S.E.2d 33, 34 (1993); McMillan v. McMillan, 219 Va. 1127, 253 S.E.2d 662, 663–64 (1979). According to the First Restatement of Conflict of Laws, the place of the tort is the state "where the last event necessary to make an actor liable for an alleged tort takes place," which in all but a few cases is the injury felt by the plaintiff. Restatement (First) of Conflict of Laws § 377 (1934).

The traditional rule has been considered inexact in cases of libel arising from multi-state publications. Some courts have called the old rule "cumbersome, if not impossible" to apply where the plaintiff's reputation is allegedly injured in several states by the same aggregate publication. Wells v. Liddy, 186 F.3d 505, 527 (4th Cir.1999).

However, in practice, lex loci jurisdictions have shown remarkable consistency in how to resolve the question. The vast majority of such districts look to the law of the jurisdiction where the plaintiff suffered the greatest injury. Moreover, that district is usually the one in which the plaintiff was domiciled. See Wells v. Liddy, 186 F.3d 505, 528 (4th Cir. 1999) (interpreting Maryland law); Miller v. Lear Siegler, Inc., 525 F. Supp. 46, 56 (D. Kan. 1981); Lewis v. Reader's Digest Ass'n, Inc., 162 Mont. 401, 407, 512 P.2d 702 (Mont.1973). Virginia has not specifically addressed this question, but I find that they would follow the lead of other lex loci jurisdictions and pinpoint the place of greatest harm in this multistate libel case in the district where the plaintiff was domiciled, absent strong countervailing circumstances.

<sup>1</sup> Although the Virginia Supreme Court has not specifically considered whether the single publication rule applies in the context of an internet publication, nearly every other jurisdiction has held that an internet publication of the same material is part of a single publication. See, e.g., Eramo v. Rolling Stone, LLC, 209 F. Supp. 3d 862, 879 (W.D. Va. 2016) ("Jurisdictions that have adopted the single publication rule are 'nearly unanimous' in applying it to internet publications."); Canatella v. Van De Kamp, 486 F.3d 1128, 1134 (9th Cir. 2007) (holding that internet publication qualified as single publication for purposes of the single publication rule, and that "a single publication gives rise to only one cause of action"); Nationwide Bi-Weekly Admin., Inc. v. Belo Corp., 512 F.3d 137, 146 (5th Cir. 2007) (same).

Hatfill v. Foster, 415 F. Supp. 2d 353, 364–65 (S.D.N.Y. 2006) (emphasis added); see also Gilmore v. Jones, No. 3:18-cv-00017, at *40-41 (W.D. Va. Mar. 29, 2019) (“the Court finds that the Supreme Court of Virginia, in extending lex loci delicti to multi-defendant, multi-state Internet tort cases, would define the ‘place of the wrong’ as the state where the plaintiff is primarily injured as a result of the allegedly tortious online content,” and holding that a claim arose in the plaintiff’s domicile state). The Restatement (Second) of Conflicts is in accord. Section 150 recites that “The rights and liabilities that arise from defamatory matter in any one edition of a . . . newspaper . . . or similar aggregate communication are determined by the local law of the state which . . . has the most significant relationship to the occurrence and the parties.” Rest. (Second) Conflicts § 150. Moreover, “the state with the most significant relationship ‘will usually be the state where the plaintiff was domiciled at the time if the matter complained of was published in that state.’” Sarver v. Chartier, 813 F.3d 891, 898 (9th Cir. 2016); see also Hanley v. Trib. Publ'g Co., 527 F.2d 68, 70 (9th Cir.1975) (“In cases of defamation, [the Second Restatement factors] normally would call for application of the law of the plaintiff’s domicil.”).

Here, the alleged defamation plainly arose outside of Virginia. Plaintiff is domiciled in California. (Compl. ¶ 8.) He does not own property in Virginia. He does the vast majority of his work as a Hollywood actor in California. (Id.) He seeks redress for injuries to his professional and personal reputation—both of which are primarily based on the opinions of people he works and lives with in California. (Id. ¶¶ 5, 8, 71, 73, 82, 83, 93, 104.)

Underscoring the conclusion that Virginia is not the place where any defamation arose, none of the relevant conduct took place in Virginia. To the best of her knowledge, Ms. Heard has never set foot in Virginia. (Heard Decl. ¶ 56.) Ms. Heard was never even in direct contact with any Washington Post employee, let alone one with an office in Virginia. (Id. ¶¶ 53-55.) Nor did she make any request that her Op-Ed be distributed in any print edition of the newspaper that might be circulated in Virginia. (Id. ¶ 55.)

B. Virginia Is A Completely Inconvenient Forum

Virginia courts also look to whether another forum would be more convenient:

The principle of forum non conveniens is simply that a court may resist imposition upon its jurisdiction even when jurisdiction is authorized by the letter of a general venue statute. These statutes are drawn with a necessary generality and usually give a plaintiff a choice of courts, so that he may be quite sure of some place in which to pursue his remedy. But the open door may admit those who seek not simply justice but perhaps justice blended with some harassment. A plaintiff sometimes is under temptation to resort to a strategy of forcing the trial at a most inconvenient place for an adversary, even at some inconvenience to himself.

Gulf Oil Corp. v. Gilbert, 330 U.S. 501, 507 (1947) (emphasis added). “The forum chosen as a result of [the forum non conveniens analysis] should be one which insures the ability of the plaintiff to prosecute his cause free from any suggestion of abuse of the venue provisions.”

Norfolk & W. Ry. Co. v. Williams. 239 Va. 390, 393 (1990).

In Norfolk & Western Railway Co. v. Williams, the Virginia Supreme Court articulated the circumstances that must be considered in a forum non conveniens analysis. Those factors include “[1] relative ease of access to sources of proof; [2] availability of compulsory process for attendance of unwilling, and the cost of obtaining attendance of willing witnesses; [3] possibility of view of premises, if view would be appropriate to the action; and [4] all other practical problems that make trial of a case easy, expeditious and inexpensive.” Id. at 393 (citing Gulf, 330 U.S. at 508). Thus, critical to the forum non conveniens analysis is an understanding of what would be litigated on the merits of Plaintiff’s action.

1. The Primary Issue In Dispute Is Whether Mr. Depp Abused Ms. Heard In California, Australia, Japan, Or The Bahamas

For his Complaint, Mr. Depp contends that Ms. Heard defamed him by authoring an Op-Ed. Ostensibly vexed by the absence of any literal falsehoods in the Op-Ed (Compl. ¶¶ 1-2, 20-23), Plaintiff takes issue with an implication he has imagined is contained within the Op-Ed, namely, that he had abused Ms. Heard during the course of their marriage. (Id. ¶¶ 3-4, 22-23.) Setting aside whether any such implication is reasonably inferable, the only factual questions that will require resolution in this action are whether, in fact, Mr. Depp actually abused Ms. Heard (rendering even the imagined inferences truthful) and whether Ms. Heard acted with malice. See Jordan v. Kollman, 269 Va. 569, 575, 612 S.E.2d 203, 206 (2005) (“In Virginia, the elements of libel are (1) publication of (2) an actionable statement with (3) the requisite intent. True statements do not support a cause of action for defamation.”) (internal citations omitted).<sup>2</sup>

Mr. Depp’s Complaint proclaims that he could not have abused Ms. Heard because several witnesses who saw Ms. Heard after one reported incident later claimed that they had not seen evidence of abuse on that occasion. (See Compl. ¶¶ 16, 17, 27, 30, 33-60.) This confusion suffers from two flaws of logic: First, notwithstanding the fact that there is ample evidence that Mr. Depp abused Ms. Heard on that occasion—including sufficient evidence for a court to grant Ms. Heard a domestic violence restraining order—there were numerous other occasions where Mr. Depp abused Ms. Heard. (See Heard Decl. ¶¶ 5-42.) Second, it does not follow that because certain individuals may now claim not to have seen bruises on Ms. Heard, that she was not in fact abused.

For purposes of adjudicating the Motion to Dismiss, the only state with a nexus to the truth of Mr. Depp's abuse—which will prove the truth or falsity of the implication Mr. Depp alleges Ms. Heard made in her Op-Ed—is California (setting aside Australia, Japan, and the Bahamas). That is because California is where all of the witnesses are located. Indeed, that is true as to those “witnesses” who Mr. Depp claims may somehow disprove his abuse, as Mr. Depp concedes that each of the 13+ “witnesses” identified in the Complaint (and therefore a central source of proof for his claim) is located in California. (See Compl. ¶¶ 16, 17, 27, 30, 33-60.) California is also the location of the other witnesses who directly observed Mr. Depp's abuse of Ms. Heard. (Heard Decl. ¶¶ 6-11, 19-20, 23, 27-33, 36-40.) The vast majority of these occasions took place in Los Angeles, California, where Mr. Depp would alternate between sober and inebriated states, between lucid and delusional thinking, and between remorse and violence with Ms. Heard. (Id. ¶¶ 5-42.) Mr. Depp and his assistants would apologize to Ms. Heard the next morning for Mr. Depp's behavior, appalled at what had happened the night before. (Id. ¶¶ 8, 12.) Ms. Heard would frequently cover for Mr. Depp, brushing her hair to conceal bruises and lying to her parents to prevent them from intervening. (Id. ¶¶ 31, 45.) Ms. Heard had to frequently live apart from Mr. Depp—at one point in their marriage for a month straight—in order to hide from Mr. Depp when he was in one of his delusional or violent moods. (Id. ¶¶ 14, 35.) Friends, acquaintances, staff and doctors: all witness to Mr. Depp's behavior, all located in California. (Id. ¶¶ 6-11, 19-20, 23, 27-33, 36-40.) If litigation is a vehicle for ascertaining the truth, it is necessary for this litigation to proceed in California where the witnesses can be heard in person. Those witnesses are outside of this Court's subpoena power.

Similarly, evidence regarding the effects of Ms. Heard's Op-Ed on Mr. Depp's professional reputation—the primary source of his damages claim—will necessarily focus on Los Angeles, California, the place where Mr. Depp regularly conducts his business as an actor. (See Compl. ¶¶ 5, 71, 73, 82, 83, 93, 104.)

While a plaintiff's choice of forum may have an initial presumption of correctness, "the weight afforded that choice is diminished when, as here, the action has at best only a technical, formal connection with the original court chosen." Williams, 239 Va. at 395-96. Here, none of Mr. Depp's abuse of Ms. Heard even allegedly took place in Virginia. Based on the issues raised by Mr. Depp's Complaint, the factual questions to be resolved at trial are:

- i) the credibility of the various parties and witnesses he has identified in his Complaint (all of whom are located in California);
- ii) the veracity of Defendant's account of Plaintiff's abusive episodes given the layout and damage done to the physical premises where the abuse occurred (in Los Angeles, California); and
- iii) damages, if any, to Plaintiff's professional reputation amongst the entertainment industry (primarily located in Los Angeles, California).

Therefore, as discussed below, every factor in the forum non conveniens analysis weighs in favor of finding that Virginia is an inconvenient forum. California has a far greater nexus to the issues for resolution in this action, and proceeding in Virginia would interpose all sorts of practical and substantive difficulties on the parties, making it impossible to conclude that Plaintiff chose Virginia as a venue for any reason other than harassment.

2. Litigating In Virginia Would Make It Prohibitively Difficult For The Parties To Access The Relevant Sources Of Proof

The first factor in the forum non conveniens analysis is whether the forum provides ready and inexpensive access to the sources of proof in the litigation. Williams, 239 Va. at 395.

“Clearly an important indicator of good cause supporting transfer is substantial inconvenience to parties or witnesses.” Id.; see also Hotung v. Hotung, No. 130264, 2014 WL 576178, at *3 (Va. Feb. 7, 2014) (reversing denial of motion to dismiss on forum non conveniens grounds because, inter alia, “[t]o testify in person in this case, both the parties and the witnesses would have been required to engage in lengthy, complicated international travel from Hong Kong to Fairfax, Virginia. The expense and inconvenience of appearing at trial would have increased proportionally with distance compared to Williams.”).

Here, as previously discussed, every party and relevant witness resides in Los Angeles, California: Mr. Depp (Compl. ¶ 8); Ms. Heard (id. ¶ 9); Ms. Heard’s friends and family Mr. Depp has accused of participating in a hoax (id. ¶ 54); the building residents and employees who claimed to have witnessed (or not witnessed) Ms. Heard’s physical conditions (id. ¶¶ 36, 38, 40-56); the security guards employed by Mr. Depp (id. ¶¶ 30); the police officers who arrived in response to a 911 call by iO Tillet Wright, who overheard Mr. Depp abusing Ms. Heard (id. ¶ 60; Heard Decl. ¶¶ 36, 38); Mr. Depp’s assistant who witnessed and apologized for his abuse (Heard Decl. ¶ 8); and Mr. Depp’s professional representatives who might testify as to how Mr. Depp’s career and reputation have changed following the publication of the Op-Ed (see, e.g., Compl. ¶¶ 5, 71, 73, 82, 83, 93, 104).

Of course, Los Angeles, California is significantly farther from Fairfax, Virginia than the distance that proved dispositively inconvenient in Williams, and the dozens of witnesses who would be needed at any fair trial would be substantially inconvenienced in any attempt to provide live testimony, if not outright precluded from being compelled to testify. (See Compl. ¶¶ 36, 38, 40-56; Heard Decl. ¶¶ 6-11, 19-20, 23, 27-33, 36-40.) As the Virginia Supreme Court recently reaffirmed, in Williams, it had “reversed a circuit court’s denial of a motion to transfer under Code § 8.01–265 largely because of the inconvenience to the witnesses in having to travel from Roanoke (where the plaintiff sustained personal injury) to Portsmouth (where he filed his complaint).” See Hotung, 2014 WL 576178, at *3. The Williams court had explained:

By holding a trial in Portsmouth, the witnesses faced the inconvenience of being away from families, homes, and jobs while traveling to Portsmouth to testify, regardless of who made the arrangements or paid the expenses. Not one potential witness was from Portsmouth and would be spared this imposition. The alternative was the presentation of deposition testimony, a less desirable procedure which deprives the trial judge and jury of the ability to evaluate the witnesses in person.

Williams, 239 Va. at 395 (emphasis added).

The case at bar presents a stronger case for dismissal on forum non conveniens than even Williams, as the inconvenience to the potential witnesses in this action would be far greater given the larger distance between Los Angeles and Fairfax County.

3. Virginia Courts Cannot Compel California Witnesses To Appear At Trial, Depriving The Parties The Ability To Confront Accusers, Accomplices Or Uncooperative Witnesses

As discussed above, numerous witnesses would undoubtedly refuse to undertake such travel for purposes of hearings, depositions, or trial if this case was litigated in Fairfax County. Moreover, the neighbors, guards, friends, and other purported witnesses who are not parties to the case could choose not to cooperate and thereby frustrate efforts to obtain their attendance at trial as Virginia cannot compel it. See Yelp, Inc. v. Hadeed Carpet Cleaning, Inc., 289 Va. 426, 433, 770 S.E.2d 440, 443 (2015) (“[O]ur Rules do not recognize the existence of subpoena power over nonresident non-parties.”). The ability to compel witness attendance at trial was a critical concern of the Williams court, and is all the more problematic here given the likelihood that neutral, disinterested witnesses (including those Mr. Depp identifies in his Complaint) will be unwilling to bear the inconvenience and expense to testify at trial unless compelled. Thus, far beyond being a matter of “mere inconvenience,” litigating in Depp’s chosen forum of Virginia would actually deprive Defendant of the ability to confront witnesses at trial. That significant prejudice weighs heavily in favor of dismissal under Williams.

4. The Only Relevant Physical Premises Are In Los Angeles, California

In addition to the inconvenience of procuring the witnesses Mr. Depp has identified in his Complaint, it would be impossible for a trier of fact located in Fairfax County, Virginia to view the physical premises that Mr. Depp has put at issue in his Complaint. For example, Mr. Depp alleges that he could not have injured Ms. Heard when he threw his cell phone and struck Ms. Heard in the face in light of the physical layout of the apartment and the view that his security guards had of Ms. Heard after the fact. (Compl. ¶ 33.) Mr. Depp also claims that security camera footage following one incident of abuse disproves Ms. Heard’s claim—either way, the proof will necessarily depend on the layout of the physical premises in Los Angeles, California. (Id. ¶¶ 51, 53-57.). Likewise, Mr. Depp left ample evidence of his delusional and violent states in the broken objects and furniture he had shared with Ms. Heard in his Los Angeles apartments. (Heard Decl. ¶¶ 27, Ex. 12, 36-40, Ex. 29.) Such physical evidence would only be accessible to a trier of fact in California, not Virginia. Thus, if forced to litigate in Virginia, Defendant would suffer even more prejudice to her ability to fully present her defenses. Consequently, this factor also weighs in favor of dismissal on forum non conveniens grounds.

5. Litigating In California Would Allow For An Early Anti-SLAPP Motion And Disposition Of Mr. Depp’s Claims.

Lastly, litigating in Virginia would preclude Ms. Heard from asserting her substantive right to require Mr. Depp to prove his likelihood of prevailing on the merits before litigating further under California’s Anti-SLAPP statute. See Maloney v. T3Media, Inc., 94 F. Supp. 3d 1128, 1132 (C.D. Cal. 2015), aff’d, 853 F.3d 1004 (9th Cir. 2017) (“Although framed as a rule of state procedure, California’s anti-SLAPP statute protects substantive rights and thus applies in federal court.”) (citing Newsham v. Lockheed, 190 F.3d 963, 973 (9th Cir. 1999)). In California, Ms. Heard could require Mr. Depp to put forward evidence that would demonstrate, on pain of dismissal, that he is likely to prevail on his claim, i.e., to prove that he had never abused Ms. Heard. See Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 425.16; Stewart v. Rolling Stone LLC, 181 Cal. App. 4th 664, 675 (2010), as modified on denial of reh’g (Feb. 24, 2010) (under California anti-SLAPP law, a special motion to strike may be filed, and if defendant shows that the challenged conduct arises out of “protected activity,” “the burden shifts to the plaintiff to establish, with admissible evidence, a reasonable probability of prevailing on the merits”).<sup>3</sup>

While Virginia’s recently amended Anti-SLAPP statute does provide for immunity from suit for certain kinds of statements, Virginia law does not place an early burden of affirmatively proving a plaintiff’s likelihood of prevailing on their underlying claims at an early juncture in litigation. Nor would Ms. Heard (for the reasons set forth above) be able to adduce in a Virginia-based motion the same quantum of evidence that she would be in a California-based anti-SLAPP motion. Because there is overwhelming evidence of Mr. Depp’s abuse of Ms. Heard (and on multiple occasions, not just the one instance Mr. Depp is attempting to call into question in his Complaint), Ms. Heard’s anti-SLAPP motion applying California law would undoubtedly preclude Mr. Depp’s claims from going any farther.

<sup>3</sup> Ms. Heard has filed a Combined Motion to Dismiss and Plea in Bar in which the Anti-SLAPP laws of both California and Virginia are preserved out of an abundance of caution. This Motion to Dismiss is submitted to the Court first because this question of venue should be resolved first.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Ms. Heard respectfully requests that this Court dismiss this case pursuant to Va. Code § 8.01-265(i).

Dated this 11th day of April 2019.

Counsel for Plaintiff John C. Depp, II

Timothy J. McEvoy, Esq. (VSB No. 33277)

VIRGINIA :

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF FAIRFAX COUNTY

JOHN C. DEPP, II

Plaintiff,

v.

AMBER LAURA HEARD

Defendant.

Civil Action No.: CL-2019-0002911

DECLARATION OF AMBER LAURA HEARD

1 DECLARATION OF AMBER LAURA HEARD

2 I, Amber Laura Heard, declare as follows:

3 1. I am a party in the above-entitled action. I have firsthand, personal knowledge of 4 the facts set forth below and if called as a witness could competently testify thereto.

5 2. I first met John C. Depp, II (“Johnny”) in 2009, and we started dating around the 6 end of 2011 or early 2012. For the first year of our relationship, Johnny was sober and our 7 relationship blossomed. We were in love.

8 3. About a year into our relationship, I began to witness Johnny abusing drugs and 9 alcohol or would notice that he was drunk or high. He frequently went in and out of drug and 10 alcohol dependency medical care, including 24-hour live-in medical aid for the last three years of 11 our relationship. On some occasions, when Johnny simultaneously used both illegal narcotics and 12 prescription medications I have had to get him medical attention. Whenever he was using, I
13 worried for both of us. He would become a totally different person, often delusional and violent.
14 We called that version of Johnny, “the Monster.”

15 4. Johnny often would not remember his delusional and violent conduct after he came 16 out of his drunk or medicated states. Eventually, as his abuse continued, I began to document the 17 injuries and destruction with photographs or videos so that I could show Johnny what he had done
18 while in his altered state. Because I loved Johnny, I had believed his multiple promises that he 19 could and would get better. I was wrong.

20 Late 2012/Early 2013, Los Angeles, California:

21 5. The first time Johnny hit me was at the end of 2012 or in early 2013. We were in 22 Los Angeles, California, talking about a tattoo, and I laughed at something Johnny had said. I
23 thought he had made a joke. He responded by slapping me across the face. Each hit was harder
24 than the one before. The third hit knocked me to the floor. I did not respond physically or 25 verbally; I froze, whether out of fear or shock, and then I went home without saying a word. I 26 thought about leaving Johnny then.

1 March 8, 2013, Los Angeles, California:

2 6. Johnny hit me again on March 8, 2013 in my Los Angeles home. This was just one
3 unfortunate incident in a series around that time where Johnny would become volatile and violent
4 when under the influence of drugs and alcohol, then contrite and apologetic when he would sober
5 up. On this particular incident, Johnny was getting drunk and high alone, and was angry that I had 6 hung up a painting given to me by someone I had formerly dated. He tried to set fire to the 7 painting the following morning. Johnny's team and I asked my sister Whitney to come over to try
8 to intervene with Johnny, which she did. At some point after she left, Johnny resumed his fight
9 with me, and hit me so hard that blood from my lip ended up on the wall. Attached hereto as 10 Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of a text message exchange Johnny and I had the following
11 Tuesday. On my phone, I had labeled Johnny as "Steve," and on his phone, he labeled me "Slim," 12 in part to protect our privacy if anyone else came into possession of our phones.

13 May 24, 2014, Flight from Boston, Massachusetts to Los Angeles, California:

14 7. On or about May 24, 2014, I met Johnny in Boston, and we both flew from Boston
15 to Los Angeles on a private plane. Johnny appeared to have been drinking heavily and was 16 holding a bottle of champagne when I met him in the morning. On the flight, Johnny ordered the 17 flight attendants to give him an oxygen tank, and drank heavily. Johnny's handlers told me that he 18 was upset that I was filming a movie with a romantic scene with James Franco the day before.
19 Soon, Johnny began to throw objects at me. Instead of reacting to his behavior, I simply moved 20 seats. That didn't stop him. He provocatively pushed a chair at me as I walked by, yelled at me,
21 and taunted me by yelling out the name "James Franco." At some point, I stood up, and Johnny 22 kicked me in the back, causing me to fall over. Johnny threw his boot at me while I was on the 23 ground. Johnny continued to scream obscenities until he went into the plane bathroom and passed
24 out locked in the bathroom for the remainder of the flight. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 is a true
25 and correct copy of text messages exchanged between me and Johnny (labeled "Steve") dated May 26 25, 2014. In them, Johnny admitted, "Once again, I find myself in a place of shame and regret.
27 Of course, I am sorry. I really don't know why or what happened. But I will never do it again."
28

1           8.       Johnny's assistant Stephen Deuters (labeled "Stephen" on my phone) also texted
2 me on May 25, 2014 to pass along Johnny's apologies for his behavior during the flight. Stephen
3 admitted that Johnny "was appalled. When I told him he kicked you, he cried." Attached hereto
4 as Exhibit 3 is a true and correct copy of the text message exchange between me and Deuters dated
5 May 25, 2014, in which Deuters confirmed my memory of what took place and relayed messages
6 from Johnny to me. Specifically, Exhibit 3 was generated by a forensics expert who extracted
7 these text messages from my phone in 2016 to disprove allegations that I had somehow doctored
8 or fabricated these messages.

9 August 2014, Bahamas:

10           9.       In August of 2014, Johnny and I took a trip to the Bahamas to try to help Johnny 11 detox under the supervision of his full-time, live-in nurse, Debbie Lloyd. While we were in the 12 Bahamas, Johnny had a number of manic episodes requiring medical attention that Debbie was 13 unable to manage on her own, so we flew in Dr. David Kipper, Johnny's private doctor, to help 14 manage his increasingly severe episodes.

15           10.       On August 17, 2014, while in the Bahamas, Johnny and I got into a fight during 16 which Johnny kicked and pushed me to the ground, slapped me with an open hand, and grabbed
17 me by the hair. During his attack, Johnny kicked the door so hard that it splintered Attached
18 hereto as Exhibit 4 are true and correct copies of photographs of the broken door.

19           11.       I contacted Dr. Kipper and his assistant Debbie Lloyd for help with Johnny and 20 managing his complex drug regimen. They both arrived on the night of August 17, 2014, and 21 observed my injuries. We all continued to monitor Johnny for several days thereafter. Attached
22 hereto as Exhibit 5 are true and correct copies of text messages I exchanged with Dr. David Kipper
23 and his assistant Debbie Lloyd during that time frame.

24 December 17, 2014, Los Angeles, California:

25           12.       On December 17, 2014, after Johnny had a particularly violent episode, he 26 apologized for his behavior, calling himself a "fucking savage." Attached hereto as Exhibit 6 are 27 true and correct copies of screenshots of that text message exchange (again, Johnny is "Steve").

1 January 25, 2015, Tokyo, Japan:

2 13. On or around January 25, 2015, Johnny and I were in a hotel room in Tokyo, Japan.
3 Johnny shoved me, slapped me, and grabbed me by my hair. When I tried to stand up, Johnny
4 muscled me back to the floor. He stood over me and yelled as I cried on the floor.

5 March 2015, Australia:

6 14. On March 3, 2015, I arrived in Australia to meet Johnny after I had been filming a
7 movie. It was the first time I had seen Johnny in about a month, and I noticed that Johnny had lost
8 a lot of weight and was behaving erratically. At some point in the next few days, I watched 9 Johnny pull out what I later found out was a bag of MDMA (ecstasy); even though Johnny was 10 supposed to be clean at that time, Johnny told me that I had not explicitly forbidden him from 11 taking ecstasy. The argument heated up, and Johnny pushed me, slapped me, and shoved me to 12 the ground before I retreated to a locked bedroom and went to sleep, as I was jet-lagged from the 13 travel.

14 15. When I woke up the next morning, I went downstairs to find that Johnny was still 15 awake, and that he had stayed up all night, having taken about eight MDMA pills. He was also 16 drinking again. We got into a fight that Johnny made physical, and I barricaded myself in one of 17 the rooms. That didn't stop Johnny from busting through the door of the room I was in. By 18 nightfall, Johnny had hit me multiple times, shoved and pushed me to the ground, choked me, and 19 spit in my face. Johnny then handed me a liquor bottle that he was drinking from, and asked me, 20 "What are you going to do?" I threw the bottle on the floor. Johnny responded by starting to 21 throw cans and unopened glass bottles at me. I wanted Johnny to go to sleep, in hopes that he 22 would sober up. Instead, he began to fight with me about our upcoming marriage. I observed as 23 Johnny then called multiple lawyers and representatives, including Tracey Jacobs, then his agent
24 at the United Talent Agency.

25 16. That night, Johnny shoved me into a ping pong table that collapsed underneath me.
26 Johnny threw bottles through the window panels of a glass door, breaking two panes, and leaving 27 glass everywhere. Johnny then grabbed me, gripping my body and nightgown. He tore the 28 nightgown off, and at some point, I was naked and barefoot, covered in alcohol and glass. Johnny

1 grabbed me by my hair and choked me against the refrigerator in the kitchen. I tried to stand
2 myself up but I was sliding around the glass-strewn floor and countertop. Johnny threw me away
3 from him, and I tried to run away as Johnny continued to throw objects and alcohol at me. In one
4 of the most horrific and scariest moments of this three-day ordeal, Johnny grabbed me by the neck
5 and collarbone and slammed me against the countertop. I struggled to stand up as he strangled
6 me, but my arms and feet kept slipping and sliding on to the spilled alcohol and were dragged 7 against the broken glass on the countertop and floor, which repeatedly slashed my feet and arms.
8 Scared for my life, I told Johnny, "You are hurting me and cutting me." Johnny ignored me, 9 continuing to hit me with the back of one closed hand, and slamming a hard plastic phone against 10 a wall with his other until it was smashed into smithereens. While he was smashing the phone,
11 Johnny severely injured his finger, cutting off the tip of it. I did not throw a vodka bottle—or any 12 other kind of bottle—at Johnny, nor did I cause that injury to Johnny's finger. Once I was able to 13 get away, I barricaded myself in an upstairs bedroom, and tried to go to sleep.

14           17.     On the third day of Johnny staying awake without sleeping, I came downstairs to 15 find numerous messages Johnny had written to me around the house, on the walls and on my 16 clothes, written in a combination of oil paint and the blood from his broken and severed finger.
17 Johnny also urinated all over the house in an attempt to write messages. I was only able to capture
18 a few pictures of these messages because I had barricaded myself in my bedroom, even though
19 they had been spread all over the house. Attached hereto as Exhibit 7 are true and correct pictures
20 of messages Johnny had smeared in his blood and paint in the bathroom adjoining the bedroom I 21 had barricaded myself in.

22           18.     By the time I got the security guards to come upstairs, it had been almost 24 hours
23 now since Johnny had cut off part of his finger. His team was worried about the blood he had lost, 24 and so he was rushed to hospital. Afterwards, I flew back to Los Angeles, and Johnny returned to 25 his separate house in West Hollywood. I had a busted lip, a swollen nose, and cuts all over my 26 body, which friends, family, medical professionals, and co-workers all witnessed. To this day, I
27 still have scars on my arms and feet from this incident. Attached hereto as Exhibit 8 is a true and 28 correct copy of a picture of scars that are still on my left arm from this incident.

1 March 2015, Los Angeles, California:

2 19. Later in March, 2015, Johnny and I were in Los Angeles, California. Johnny's
3 hand was still in a cast following the incident in Australia. After becoming enraged, he began to 4 destroy personal property all over the house, including my belongings in my closet. My sister
5 Whitney was there, so when Johnny lunged to hit me, Whitney placed herself between us. Johnny
6 turned his attention to Whitney, who was standing on the top of a flight of stairs, and moved on 7 her. Acting in defense of my sister, as I was scared for her physical safety, I punched Johnny in 8 the face to draw his attention away from her. That was the only time I ever hit Johnny. At that 9 point, house security intervened and separated us. Attached hereto as Exhibit 9 are true and 10 correct copies of a text message exchange Whitney had with Kevin Murphy (the house manager)
11 following that incident. Attached hereto as Exhibit 10 is a true and correct copy of excerpts of the 12 transcript of my deposition dated August 13, 2016, in which I previously testified under oath about 13 that incident. Attached hereto as Exhibit 11 is a true and correct copy of a video excerpt of that 14 deposition testimony.

15 20. After he attacked me and my sister in March of 2015, Johnny seemed to get clean
16 and quit using everything other than his prescription medications. For some months, things were 17 peaceful. Then, in July of 2015, Johnny started to drink wine and smoke marijuana again.

18 August 2015, Thailand and Malaysia:

19 21. In August of 2015, Johnny and I traveled to Southeast Asia. While on the Eastern 20 Oriental train, Johnny picked a fight with me, and started hitting and pushing me against a wall by 21 grasping my throat and holding me there. I remember being afraid that Johnny might not know 22 when to stop, and that he might kill me.

23 November 26, 2015, Los Angeles, California:

24 22. On November 26, 2015, which was Thanksgiving, Johnny and I were in Los 25 Angeles, and got into another physical fight. Johnny ripped my shirt, and threw me around the 26 room. He threw a wine glass and a heavy glass decanter at me, which luckily missed. At one
27 point, Johnny pushed me, and I fell over the back of a lounge chair and hit my head against a brick
28

1 wall. I later learned that I had gotten a sizeable lump on the back of my head, and that my lip had 2 busted open.

3 December 15, 2015, Los Angeles, California:

4 23. On the night of December 15, 2015, I had plans to meet with my friends Raquel
5 "Rocky" Pennington and Melanie at Johnny's and my penthouse in Los Angeles. Before they 6 arrived, Johnny picked another fight with me. He threw another decanter at me, knocked items
7 around the room, and punched the wall. He slapped me hard, grabbed me by my hair, and dragged 8 me from a stairwell to the office to the living room to the kitchen to the bedroom and then to the 9 guest room. In the process, he pulled large chunks of hair and scalp out of my head.

10 24. Hoping to avoid the violence, I tried to calm Johnny down, and then went upstairs
11 to try to remove myself from the situation. Johnny followed me, hit me in the back of my head,
12 grabbed me by my hair again, got in front of me on the steps, and then dragged me by my hair up 13 the last few steps. At the top of stairs, Johnny shoved me twice, which made me fear I would fall.
14 I told Johnny that he had broken my wrist in an attempt to get him to stop.

15 25. Johnny kept hitting me, and each time he knocked me down, I chose to react by 16 simply standing up and looking him in the eye. Johnny responded by yelling, "Oh, you think 17 you're a fucking tough guy?" He reeled back and head-butted me in my face, bashing my nose, 18 which immediately began bleeding, sending searing pain through my face. I instantly started
19 tearing up, and I thought that I would have to go to the hospital. I told Johnny I wanted to leave
20 him, and that I would call the police if he ever touched me again. When I began to walk away 21 toward the guest apartment, he responded by pushing me, then grabbed me and pulled me from 22 one room to the next, gripping me by my hair.

23 26. By the time Johnny had dragged me into the upstairs office, I told Johnny that I was 24 leaving him, since I could not put up with his behavior any longer. Johnny reacted by grabbing 25 me by my throat, pushing me down to the ground, and punching me in the back of my head. He 26 grabbed me by my hair, slapping me in the face, and screaming at me something like, "I fucking 27 will kill you – I'll fucking kill you, you hear me?" There were chunks of my hair everywhere and 28 indentations in the carpet where I was dragged.

1           27.     At some point, the fight continued onto a bed. Johnny got on top of me with his
2 knee on my back and the other foot on the bedframe, while repeatedly punching me in my head,
3 and he screamed—as loudly as I’ve ever heard him scream—“I fucking hate you” over and over
4 again. The bedframe splintered under the weight of the pressure of his boot. Johnny hit me with 5 his closed fists, and I remember being unable to hear myself screaming because he had pushed my 6 face into the mattress. I screamed as loudly as I could, hoping Johnny would realize he was 7 severely hurting me. For a while, I could not scream or breathe. I worried that Johnny was in a
8 blacked-out state and unaware of the damage he was doing, and that he could actually kill me. To 9 this day, I do not know how the fight ended. Attached hereto as Exhibit 12 are true and correct 10 copies of photographs of the hair he pulled out of my head and the bedframe he splintered during 11 the course of this violent episode.

12           28.     The first thing I remember after the fight was Rocky coming into my room, and 13 screaming “Oh my god! Oh my god! Oh my god!” as she saw me. Together with Melanie, who 14 had also arrived, we called Erin Boeurum, a nurse, who instructed us on how to conduct a 15 concussion check over the phone. I had severe headaches and other pain for at least a week 16 afterward.

17           29.     I later learned, that when Rocky and Melanie arrived, broken glass and chunks of 18 hair were strewn across the downstairs of the penthouse. True and correct copies of pictures of my 19 injuries from that occasion are attached hereto as Exhibit 13.

20           30.     Johnny also had written a message on the countertop in our kitchen in gold sharpie
21 that said, “Why be a fraud? All is such bullshit.” A true and correct copy of a picture of that 22 message is attached hereto as Exhibit 14.

23           31.     That night, I texted my publicist Jodi Gottlieb (who lives in Los Angeles) to let her
24 know that I had been badly injured, and that I might not be able to make an appearance on the Late
25 Show that was scheduled for the following day depending on the extent of my bruising. I told her,
26 “I had an accident tonight Jodi. I’m really bruised and might have a black eye or two tmrw – same
27 with my nose. . . . But won’t know how bad the bruising is until the morning.” I told Jodi that I
28 had had an accident because, like many who experience abuse, I was afraid of exposing this aspect

1 of my relationship with Johnny to her or the world. A true and correct copy of the text message I
2 sent Jodi is attached hereto as Exhibit 15 (my message in white, Jodi's in blue). I asked Melanie
3 and Rocky to help cover up the bruises, bleeding, and swelling so I could make it to the Late Show
4 appearance without exposing Johnny.

5 32. A day or two later, I went to Dr. Kipper's office to get a concussion check follow-
6 up examination. Lisa Beane, the nurse who saw me followed me out to the parking lot, and told 7 me that she recognized that I "was in trouble," and advised me to call her if I was attacked again.

8 33. Attached hereto as Exhibit 16 are text messages I exchanged with Rocky a few 9 days later, on December 20 and 21, 2015, in which we discussed the attack from the night of 10 December 15, 2015 (my messages are in white, hers are in blue).

11 April 21, 2016, Los Angeles, California:

12 34. On April 21, 2016, I was hosting my own 30th birthday party at our penthouse.
13 Johnny arrived to the party late and inebriated, and, after our guests had left, we started to fight.
14 During the course of that fight, Johnny threw a magnum-sized bottle of champagne against the 15 wall, and shattered a glass against the floor. Johnny grabbed me by the shoulders, pushed me onto 16 the bed, and blocked the bedroom door when I tried to leave. He grabbed me by my hair, and 17 violently shoved me to the floor. I later applied for a domestic violence restraining order, and 18 cited that incident as part of the reason I was afraid of Johnny. His lawyers later deposed me and 19 asked about that incident. Attached hereto as Exhibits 17, 18, and 19 are true and correct copies of 20 excerpts of the transcript of my deposition dated August 13, 2016, in which I previously testified
21 under oath about that incident. Attached hereto as Exhibits 20, 21, and 22 are true and correct 22 copies of the video excerpts of that deposition testimony.

23 35. Johnny and I did not speak for a month after my birthday. Nonetheless, during that 24 month, I found myself unable to sleep through the night because I was afraid that Johnny would 25 come home and instigate a fight. I even inquired about the possibility of having my locks changed
26 because Johnny and his team had keys to the house, and I never knew when—or in what state—he 27 would come home.

1 May 21, 2016, Los Angeles, California:

2 36. On May 21, 2016, Johnny and I met at our home in Downtown Los Angeles to 3 discuss our relationship. His behavior was erratic, and as I felt increasingly unsafe, I texted Josh
4 and Rocky—who lived next door—to have them come over. I also called our mutual friend iO
5 Tillet Wright to mollify Johnny. Johnny started to scream at iO over the phone, left to go upstairs,
6 then came back downstairs and grabbed my phone, threatening iO and calling him names. At 7 some point, iO yelled at me to “get out of the house.” When Johnny heard that, he wound up like 8 a baseball pitcher and threw the phone in my face, as hard as he could. I yelled, “You hit my 9 face,” and started to cry. I had been sitting on the couch, cross-legged, and Johnny grabbed my 10 hair and started to slap, shake and yank me around the room while I continued to scream. I was 11 questioned about this topic during my August 13, 2016 deposition. Attached hereto as Exhibits 23
12 and 24 are true and correct copies of excerpts of the transcript of my deposition dated August 13,
13 2016, in which I previously testified under oath about that incident. Attached hereto as Exhibits
14 25 and 26 are true and correct copies of the video excerpts of that deposition testimony.

15 37. Rocky had a key to our penthouse, and let herself in. When she entered, Johnny 16 noticed, turned, and let go of me, allowing me to retreat to the corner sofa. Both Johnny and 17 Rocky ran toward me at the same time. Rocky threw herself in between Johnny and me, and 18 raised her arms. Johnny ran into Rocky, and pushed her arms down. She calmly planted herself
19 and said, “Stop, Johnny.” Johnny grabbed Rocky’s arms again and threw them to her sides. I 20 collapsed onto the couch, with Johnny standing over me. Johnny repeatedly screamed at me, “Get 21 the fuck up, Amber.” I did not move, and Johnny got closer, screaming “Get the fuck up, Amber”
22 about 10 times. At some point, Rocky got between us, and placed her arms over me protectively.

23 38. The door opened and someone yelled, “Boss! Boss!” Jerry Judge and Sean Bett, 24 Johnny’s private security guards, came in. Johnny stood up and then I stood up. I ran to the 25 corner of the room and said, “Jerry, he hit me, if he hits me one more time I’m calling the police! I
26 will call the police!” At the time, I did not realize that iO had been on speakerphone since Johnny 27 had thrown my phone at my face. I later learned that, at some point, iO had hung up and called 28 911.

1           39.     Johnny smashed various objects around the house with a wine bottle as he left.
2 Josh—Rocky’s fiancé—entered and told Rocky and me to stay in PH 1 (the neighboring 3 Penthouse Josh and Rocky lived in). Josh met Johnny in the hallway, where they squared off.
4 Johnny did not touch Josh. Instead, Johnny smashed more items in the hallway, spilled wine
5 everywhere, and kicked a hole in a solid door. Johnny then demanded to be let into PH 5, my 6 apartment where all of my belongings were at the time. Either Jerry or Sean opened the door,
7 despite my repeated requests not to let Johnny in due to his longstanding history of destroying my 8 possessions when he would get angry. After entering, Johnny destroyed everything he could and 9 chased Liz Marz out of the penthouse carrying a wine bottle. He also destroyed all of Rocky’s 10 beads (which she used in her work) that were supposed to be used in her show the next day.
11 Johnny’s security guards stood by the entire time. Attached hereto as Exhibit 27 is a true and 12 correct copy of an excerpt of the transcript of my deposition dated August 13, 2016, in which I
13 previously testified under oath about Sean and Jerry’s inaction. Attached hereto as Exhibit 28 is a
14 true and correct copy of the video excerpt of that deposition testimony. Attached hereto as Exhibit
15 29 are true and correct copies of photographs of the aftermath of Johnny’s destruction that night.

16           40.     At some point during Johnny’s destruction, while I was hiding in PH 1, I called my 17 attorney, Samantha Spector, with whom I had been consulting about my situation with Johnny, to 18 ask for her advice. I was afraid to give the police a statement that would create an international 19 media incident for either Johnny or me, and my instinct was still to protect Johnny and our 20 privacy. When the police officers arrived, I told them “I decline to give any statement at this time 21 as per the advice of my counsel.” The officers repeatedly requested that I cooperate by providing 22 a statement so that they could take action, but I declined. They did, however, conduct a search of 23 the apartments, which they insisted was necessary in order to ensure my safety. Attached hereto
24 as Exhibit 30 is a true and correct copy of an excerpt of the transcript of my deposition dated
25 August 13, 2016, in which I previously testified under oath about that interaction. Attached hereto
26 as Exhibits 31 is a true and correct copy of the video excerpt of that deposition testimony.

27           41.     During this time, I also texted Melanie. Attached hereto as Exhibit 32 is a true and 28 correct copy of the text exchange between us that night (my messages in white, hers in blue).

1           42.     Attached hereto as Exhibit 33 are true and correct copies of photographs of the 2 injuries I sustained on May 21, 2016, which were taken between May 21 and May 28, 2016.

3 May 27, 2016, Los Angeles, California:

4           43.     After the May 21, 2016 attack, I resolved to leave Johnny for good. I filed a
5 request for a domestic violence restraining order in Los Angeles Superior Court. Attached hereto
6 as Exhibit 34 are true and correct copies of the Application for Domestic Violence Restraining 7 Order, the Declaration of Amber Laura Depp, the Declaration of Raquel Rose Pennington and the 8 exhibits thereto, and the Declaration of Samantha F. Spector, Esq. Re Ex Parte Notice and In 9 Support Of Petitioner Amber Laura Depp's DVRO Request, all of which were filed on May 27, 10 2016.

11           44.     On May 27, 2016, I appeared in Court for a hearing on my request for a domestic 12 violence restraining order. At that time, I was still bruised following Johnny's violent attack six 13 days prior. The Court granted the domestic violence restraining order against Johnny. Attached
14 hereto as Exhibit 35 is a true and correct copy of the Court's Notice of Hearing and Temporary 15 Restraining Order filed on May 27, 2016.

16 June 2016, Los Angeles, California:

17           45.     In June of 2016, the media began reporting that there were individuals who claimed
18 to have witnessed me between May 21, 2016 and May 26, 2016, and claimed that I did not appear
19 to have been injured. Others claimed that my injuries were faked based on photographs I had 20 taken, in which my bruises had been deliberately covered using my hair. Of course, as I already 21 mentioned, other photographs that were taken of me during that time period show my injuries.
22 Likewise, multiple people I saw at personal and private events noticed my injuries and inquired 23 whether they could help, but also told me they could not comment publicly because they had 24 reason to fear that they would lose their job or livelihood if they cooperated with me.

25           46.     As part of Johnny's defense in my divorce lawsuit, his lawyers claimed that I was 26 arrested for a domestic physical altercation with my former wife, Tasya van Ree. That account
27 was deliberately misleading, since the police released me with no charges ever being brought. Ms.
28 van Ree has publicly contradicted the media reports generated by Johnny's team, and said, "In

1 2009, Amber was wrongfully accused for an incident that was misinterpreted and over-
2 sensationalized by two individuals in a power position. I recount hints of misogynistic attitudes
3 toward us which later appeared to be homophobic when they found out we were domestic partners
4 and not just 'friends.' Charges were quickly dropped and she was released moments later. It's 5 disheartening that Amber's integrity and story are being questioned yet again. Amber is a brilliant,
6 honest and beautiful woman and I have the utmost respect for her. We shared 5 wonderful years
7 together and remain close to this day." A true and correct copy of a June 8, 2016 article that 8 appeared on E! Online recounting Ms. van Ree's statement is attached hereto as Exhibit 36.

9 47. On June 6, 2016, iO Tillet Wright—who was on the phone with Johnny and me
10 during the May 21, 2016 fight and called 911—reacted to one of these media accounts on Twitter.
11 iO's Twitter handle is "iOlovesyou." Attached hereto as Exhibit 37 are true and correct copies of 12 the five tweets iO posted on June 6, 2016.

13 48. On June 13, 2016, iO filed a declaration with an accompanying exhibit. Attached
14 hereto as Exhibit 38 is a true and correct copy of the Declaration of iO Tillet Wright and the 15 exhibit thereto.

16 January 13, 2017, Los Angeles, California:

17 49. After I obtained the restraining order against Johnny, we proceeded to dissolve our 18 marriage. A true and correct copy of the Stipulated Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage, entered 19 on January 13, 2017, is attached hereto as Exhibit 39.

20 December 2018, Los Angeles, California:

21 50. Following my highly-publicized separation from Johnny, I read accounts in the 22 media referring to me as a victim of domestic violence. In response, many people called me a liar
23 (without ever hearing my story). I was dropped from a global fashion brand's upcoming 24 campaign. I lost a part for a movie in which I had already been cast. People I have never met or 25 spoken to threatened me with violence. I received so many death threats I had to change my 26 phone number on a near-weekly basis.

1           51.     People accused me of having abused Johnny. That simply is not true. I never 2 attacked Johnny other than in self-defense (and in defense of my little sister). I have never 3 physically abused anyone. I know what that does to people.

4           52.     Instead, I have attempted to promote good in the world and to advocate an end to 5 domestic violence. I have sought to use my public persona to speak out on an issue that was 6 extremely meaningful to me and millions of other women and men every year. I have spoken out
7 about violence in public, but I have always avoided specifically referencing Johnny, or recounting
8 his violence against me, not only because I wanted to move past that phase of my life but also 9 because I was constrained by the terms of a strict confidentiality agreement that Johnny had 10 insisted upon as part of our divorce settlement.

11          53.     In early December 2018, while working with the American Civil Liberties Union as 12 the ACLU Ambassador for Women's Rights, I learned of an opportunity to write an Op-Ed about 13 women's rights issues. I agreed to do so.

14          54.     I wrote the Op-Ed in Los Angeles, California, and submitted it to the Washington
15 Post through my contact at the ACLU, who was based in New York. The Op-Ed was published 16 on December 18, 2018.

17          55.     I do not believe I ever even spoke to an editor for the Washington Post, nor did I
18 ever travel to Washington, D.C. or Virginia in connection with the Op-Ed. I never knowingly
19 contacted any employee of the Washington Post who worked from the Washington Post's Virginia
20 office. Nor did I discuss with any Washington Post employee whether or not the Op-Ed would be 21 published in any particular metro edition of the newspaper.

22          56.     To the best of my knowledge, I have never traveled to Virginia in my life.
23 Executed this 10 day of April 2019, at Los Angeles, California.

24           I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Virginia that the foregoing 25 is true and correct.

Once again, I find myself in a place of shame and regret. Of course, I am sorry. I really don't know why, or what happened. But I will never do it again. I want to get better for you. And for me. I must. My illness somehow crept up and grabbed me. I can't do it again. I can't live like that again. And I know you can't either. I must get better. And I will. For us both. Starting today. I love you. Again, I am so sorry. So sorry...
I love you and feel so bad for letting you down...
Yours

I see that understanding and forgiveness ain't on the menu... I'm disappointed to see that, but, not too surprised, I suppose...

No . I don't . But is it alright and could work with minimum stress to my life, yes, it could!!
And yes- I know you don't get it, but I need the money. Just cuz it's not a "money job" doesn't mean I don't need the money it will pay!!!!!!'

Don't worry baby. I won't do a anything that makes you feel pain or discomfort . You tell me when you want - and ill do it. But ultimately we'll have to talk about it sometime. Ok!

I'm in a tough situation right now - and need the work. Period. I know you forget how that feels but please try to understand. I feel you're trying to embarrass me.

I love you . Don't know what else to say...
We need to talk in person about all this stuff and it will work out , I know

Because you want it!!!

You've led them on!!!

U didn't let go of it very easily!!!

You said that last time. (In a more respectful way) and I didn't do it! Because I wanted to talk to you more about it. Involve you and your opinion in it more. But we haven't had time to talk in person (obviously) so none of that could be accomplished .....

What I don't want to loose is a paycheck I need. Tht my parents need.

That's it.

I work. This is my job. And most the time I wish I was better than this. But at the moment- I'm not. This was my job when you met me. And unfortunately, I need to work because I'm really in a tight spot. But I held off saying a work because I'm really in a tight spot. But I held off saying a decision- in either direction- because of you. And your feelings and our conversations (which we have yet to be able to really have ) about it. Wouldn't you want just that from me? Would you do that exact thing for me?

Were you hoping for my opinion on the James Franco piece??? I'd rather you didn't stoop to that level, but... you've already told me How much you like the material and that it's not a money gig... So... It's "art"... I'm not gonna tackle that greased up piggy... No m'am... You have to do that film!!! You really want it, obviously...

I'm going to sleep. Goodnight...

Hope tomorrow holds better...

Wow... You're a funny one...

Amber H	Thanks. Please let me know when you speak to him. Or if there's any major change - or if anything goes wrong	5/25/2014 12:16:43 PM(UTC+0)
Stephen Dueters	Hey. He's up. He's much better. Clearer. He doesn't remember much, but we took him thru all that happened. He's sorry. Very sorry. And just wants to get better. Which allows us to make him follow up on that promise.	5/25/2014 3:45:04 PM(UTC+0)
Stephen Dueters	He's teary. He doesn't want to be a fuck-up anymore - his words. He's got bad indigestion this morning but otherwise alright. He's gone back to sleep for a bit.  Spoken to C. We're going to set him up with Dr Kipper on weds hopefully. He won't be skipping it this time.	5/25/2014 4:06:24 PM(UTC+0)
Amber H	If he was, he'd tell me himself I reckon  Will that dr be in Boston?  Have you told him about charlie??	5/25/2014 4:42:03 PM(UTC+0)
Stephen Dueters	That Doc will fly to Boston. He's a much bigger deal than Charlie. I'm not worried about bringing Charlie up - I'll do that later when he's awake again	5/25/2014 4:44:48 PM(UTC+0)
Amber H	Ok. I've not heard from him. Which I expected. I still want to fly back to NYC today on the red eye though. I can't keep doing this.	5/25/2014 5:23:58 PM(UTC+0)
Stephen Dueters	His phone is fucking up. I'm restarting it. You will hear from him, I'm sure. There feels like a sea change in him this morning. He just spoke about how bad he feels and he wasn't talking physically	5/25/2014 5:25:20 PM(UTC+0)
Stephen Dueters	Think he's just texted you. He's incredibly apologetic and knows that he has done wrong. He wants to get better now. He's been very explicit about that this morning.	5/25/2014 5:59:28 PM(UTC+0)
Stephen Dueters	Feel like we're at a critical juncture.	5/25/2014 6:00:25 PM(UTC+0)
Amber H	Yes but I don't know how to be around him after what he did to me yesterday.	5/25/2014 6:13:56 PM(UTC+0)
Amber H	I don't know if I can stay with him. I need time	5/25/2014 6:14:19 PM(UTC+0)
Stephen Dueters	He wants to see you so much. He's distraught.	5/25/2014 8:30:56 PM(UTC+0)
Amber H	Don't worry about the flights. I'll be taking care of them myself. Thank you.	5/25/2014 8:33:14 PM(UTC+0)

Amber H	Look, He thinks 'he doesn't deserve this'. Obviously he has no idea what he did or to the extent that he did it. If someone was truly honest with him about how bad it really was, he'd be appalled. The man johnny is would be humiliated. And definitely wouldn't say to me that he doesn't deserve it. I'm sad that he doesn't have a better way to really know the severity of his actions yesterday. Unfortunately for me, I remember in full detail everything that happened.	5/25/2014 8:47:17 PM(UTC+0)
Stephen Dueters	It was disgusting. And he knows it.	5/25/2014 8:48:00 PM(UTC+0)
Stephen Dueters	He was appalled. When I told him he kicked you, he cried.	5/25/2014 8:48:00 PM(UTC+0)
Stephen Dueters	I wasn't with him when he sent u the 2nd txt. He read it to me and I said it was the wrong text to send. He then sent the 3rd one and sat and cried again after on the bed. He's a little lost boy. And needs all the help he can get. He is so very sorry, as he should be.	5/25/2014 8:50:08 PM(UTC+0)
Amber H	He's done this many times before. Tokyo, the island, London (remember that!?), and I always stay. Always believe he's going to get better... And then every 3 or so month, I'm in the exact same position .	5/25/2014 9:19:58 PM(UTC+0)
Stephen Dueters	I know. It's hideous. But that is one side of the man that you fell in love with. And one side of the man that fell in love with you. I know you're hurting. And you've every right too. And he knows that.	5/25/2014 10:15:28 PM(UTC+0)

Are you guys talking? Has he taken morning meds?

Yes- but it's rough. He always works himself into rage without any provocation. Making me not feel like I can even converse with him.

His blood pressure was good - like 127 over 88 or something

He just took am meds

I know it is rough right now. He is angry with everyone but mostly himself and he doesn't know how to handle those emotions without his drugs. Stay as calm as you can. We will get through the day and get him home.

Ok

Slim...
I love you so...
I am truly sorry to have upset you to the degree that I have... And I couldn't be more sorry for, yet again, ruining your day...
I do, of course, take your generosity, your selflessness, your affection and your sweet doting deeply into my heart... And, I think, that I've been reciprocal...
Agony is never the answer to any equation, or occasion...
Nor is rage.
We are, I believe, in concert about this...
Please, know that my apology is sincere and solid...
And, as stupid as it sounds...?? I hope your meeting with Clive Barker is excellent!!!
I love you so very fuckin' much.....!!!
My all...
Steve

Dec 17, 2014, 8:16 PM

Thank you for your words....

I just left Betty Sue's. Just going a couple blocks away for a quick dinner or drink with Megan. I hope we can see each other when I get home....
I don't want this agony... Nor can I bear putting it on you.

Dec 17, 2014, 10:06 PM

On the way home

It's away...
I've let it go...
Went too far...
We/I tend to do that...
I always regret it when I jump, or worse... When you jump!!!
I don't want to be conditioned to continue that behavior... Therefore, I'll put in heavy work with Shrank...

I wish I were able to bring even just a glimmer of a smile to the pretty face of my most gorgeous of dreams and darkest nightmares...
I love you far too much for you and I to be these heinous slinging insults like we do/did..
It is not anything that I am particularly proud of
to have participated in... And, I regret giving it

Because...
Motherfucker...

How do we end up on the very edge of the

And, why??
Wish I knew.
Goddamn...
And... Know that YOU ARE RIGHT...!!!
I am, WELL AWARE that I SHOULD have been

NEVER again manifest in negative experiences...
It can be done!!!

Good morning, sir... So...um....
Johnny destroyed Amber's closet.
And there's some other damage to PH5.....

You're the lucky person I should talk to about that - correct?

I suppose so... I'm up

Insanity. Just, fucking insanity.

VOLUME II

Reported by:

CSR No. 5189

1 THE WITNESS: -- them actually.

2 MR. HARDER: I can't hear them. I hear them.

3 MS. GARVIS WRIGHT: I can't hear them.

4 MR. HARDER: So please answer the question.

5 BY MS. BERK:

6 Q Yes or no --

7 MR. HARDER: No.

8 BY MS. BERK:

9 Q -- did you ever punch Johnny Depp with a closed
10 fist in the history of your relationship with Johnny?

11 MR. HARDER: Answer it however you feel you
12 wish to.

13 THE WITNESS: One time, um, Johnny was hitting 14 me and he was hitting me hard and repeatedly and I was 15 screaming. Security walks in and they don't do anything
16 about it. And there -- he -- he -- he -- he -- he makes 17 this motion when Jerry Judge yells "Boss." Or Sean. I
18 can't remember who it was. And -- and my -- all we had 19 was a little bit of separation. And my sister runs down
20 the stairs. It's a -- we're on a landing in between two 21 flights of stairs.

22 MS. BERK: Ms. Heard, I must interrupt you --

23 MR. HARDER: You can't.

24 MS. BERK: -- because --

25 MR. HARDER: You can't --

1 MS. BERK: -- I've asked you a yes or a --

2 MR. HARDER: Then withdraw --

3 MS. BERK: -- no question.

4 MR. HARDER: Withdraw your question, then,
5 because she was answering.

6 BY MS. BERK:

7 Q Ms. Heard, prior to today's date, at any time,
8 has Johnny -- have you ever hit Johnny Depp?

9 MR. KOENIG: Objection. 352.

10 MR. HARDER: You've already asked and she's 11 already answered and you interrupted her.

12 BY MS. BERK:

13 Q Ms. Heard, have you ever hit Johnny Depp prior 14 to today?

15 MS. SPECTOR: 352.

16 MR. KOENIG: Objection. Vague as to time.

17 MS. KLEIN: Let her answer.

18 MR. HARDER: Everyone on this side of the room, 19 please.

20 MR. KOENIG: Objection. 352. It's not
21 relevant to the domestic violence proceeding.

22 MR. O'DONNELL: Overruled. You may answer.

23 MS. BERK: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 MR. HARDER: Answer it however you want to 25 including the way you were just giving --

1 MS. BERK: I'm asking for a yes or no answer.

2 THE WITNESS: He --

3 MR. HARDER: You don't have to answer it the 4 way she wants you to answer it.

5 THE WITNESS: He was about to push my sister
6 down the stairs. She was attempting to break us up. I'm 7 protective over my baby sister. When he laid hands on 8 her, I don't know what I did, but I know I jumped in 9 between the actions that I saw could lead to a fatal
10 injury to my sister. She was standing at the top of a 11 flight of stairs, and she has never hurt anyone in her
12 life and she does not deserve to be pushed down a flight
13 of stairs, and it looked like she was about to be. And I
14 would have done what anybody who has a child or a sister
15 would have done. I acted defensively in her life. I saw 16 her standing on top of a flight of stairs and trying to 17 interrupt a fight between him and I. I don't know what 18 part of my body I put in between me and him and her, but 19 I would have done anything, I would have done anything to 20 prevent her from being pushed down a flight of stairs.

21 BY MS. BERK:

22 Q Isn't it true, Ms. Heard, that prior to today
23 you've committed domestic violence against your sister,
24 Whitney Heard?

25 MR. HARDER: I'm going to object.

1 before she came today.

2 MR. HARDER: Well, she's doing it now.

3 MS. WASSER: Well, it's okay.

4 Maybe it's privileged because it was sent to 5 her attorneys.

6 MR. HARDER: Take your time with this document.
7 Make sure you're comfortable with what this document is.
8 Okay?

9 MS. BERK: Okay. I'll move on.

10 Q Ms. Heard --

11 THE WITNESS: I haven't seen this ever.

12 MR. HARDER: Don't -- don't say anything.

13 THE WITNESS: Okay.

14 MR. HARDER: Just let her ask a question.

15 MS. BERK: I need this.

16 Q Did --

17 MR. ALLHOFF: What is that?

18 MS. BERK: That's her declaration in support of 19 her DVRO.

20 Q In your declaration that you filed in support
21 of your request for a restraining order, did you say --
22 do you have it there so that you can refer to it?

23 A That's what this is, right? It's Exhibit K?

24 Q Exhibit K.

25 Did you say in -- did you claim in paragraph 7

1 that:

2 "After my guests had left, Johnny
3 and I had a discussion about his
4 absence from my birthday celebration
5 which deteriorated into a bad
6 argument that started with Johnny
7 throwing a magnum size bottle of 8 champagne at the wall and a wine
9 glass on me and the floor -- both
10 which shattered. Johnny then 11 grabbed me by the shoulders and 12 pushed me onto the bed, blocking the 13 bedroom door. He then grabbed me by 14 the hair and violently shoved me to 15 the floor."

16 Did you say that when you swore under penalty of 17 perjury and signed your name to this document?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. And did you say in this same document
20 that "Johnny was screaming and threatening me, taunting 21 me to stand up"?

22 A Yes. He did that often in fights.

23 Q Did he do that -- are you saying he did that on 24 April 21, 2016?

25 A Yes. It's something that had been happening a

1 lot lately.

2 Q Did you say in your declaration that "After 3 several minutes, Johnny stormed out of the condominium,
4 but not before tossing aside and breaking nearly 5 everything in his path"?

6 A Yes. Are you asking me if I said that?

7 Q Yes.

8 A Yes.

9 Q And is that the truth?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay. After you say he did this, did you call
12 the police?

13 A No, I did not.

14 Q Did you call the police regarding these things
15 you say happened at any time after you say they happened?

16 MR. HARDER: Vague and ambiguous, compound.

17 BY MS. BERK:

18 Q Do you understand my question?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay. Did you call the police -- can you
21 answer my question?

22 MR. HARDER: Go ahead.

23 THE WITNESS: Oh, okay. Did I call the police
24 on any of the other occasions or any occasion?

1 Q I'm speaking of April 21 when you make these 2 claims.

3 A No, I did not.

4 Q When you say these things happened on April 21,
5 at any time after April 21, did you call the police about
6 these things you say happened on April 21?

7 A No. I never called the police on Johnny
8 myself.

9 Q Did you ever report to any law enforcement
10 authority other than the police your claims that he did
11 these things on April 21?

12 A No. I attempted as best as I could to hide 13 this and keep our lives as private as -- as possible, and 14 I did what a lot of I guess women do, tried to protect 15 him.

16 Q Were you attempting to hide this when you filed
17 this declaration on May 27, 2016?

18 A It was unhideable because the cops had been 19 called.

20 Q Ms. Heard, when you claim in your declaration
21 that the argument started with Johnny throwing a magnum
22 size bottle of champagne at the wall, um, do you recall
23 that event?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. Did the bottle break?

1           A    I don't know if it broke or if there was a
2 bottle on the table next to it that broke and a wine
3 glass next to it that broke, but there was both a wine
4 glass and a bottle. I'm not sure which of the two it was 5 that broke when -- the one that was thrown at me but 6 missed, or if it was the one perhaps sitting on the table
7 nearby. But our paint -- the painting behind it, behind
8 it that rests on the wall behind where I was standing,
9 still is missing a big chunk out of it. So --

10           Q    Did the bot- --

11           A    -- it made quite an impact.

12           Q    Are you finished? I want to make sure if 13 you're finished or not.

14           A    Yeah.

15           Q    Okay. Did the bottle you refer to, did it ever 16 touch your body?

17           A    No.

18           Q    Did the wine glass you refer to in reference to 19 the bottle ever touch your body?

20           A    Uh, pieces of it did. That's -- it shattered.

21           Q    Okay. Where did the pieces you say touched
22 your body touch your body? What part of your body?

23           A    I don't remember exactly what part of my body
24 was touched by the glass breaking upon impact. I do know 25 that it touched my body, knees and hands -- no, not my

1 hands -- my knees anyway when I went down to the floor,
2 or some version of my legs when I went down to the floor
3 later in the fight, but nothing significant. Not like
4 Australia or anything.

5 Q Were there any injuries to your body at the 6 places you claim the wine glass touched your body?

7 A No, I don't think so.

8 Q Was there --

9 A Not that I saw.

10 Q -- any indication that you could see on your 11 body that the wine glass shards had touched your body?

12 A No. Not that I could see.

13 Q Okay.

14 A Or nothing that I remember.

15 Q At the time the wine glass touched you, as you
16 claim it did, was it intact or was it already broken?

17 A I can't tell because it was -- I assume it was 18 shattered upon impacting -- impact with the magnum size
19 bottle of wine that was thrown. Um, I'm assuming that's 20 what shattered it. But at some point there was glass
21 everywhere and, um, I was standing right next to it.

22 Q When it -- when you claim it touched your body,
23 where specifically in the apartment were you standing?

24 A Uh, I was standing in our bedroom.

25 Q Okay. And where did the bottle and glass end

1 what -- what -- what was on the floor of your bedroom as 2 you described it and where it was --

3 A I -- I don't --

4 Q -- from this incident?

5 A I don't remember.

6 Q Was --

7 A I don't --

8 Q Was there anything in addition on the floor in 9 addition to the broken wine bottle and a broken glass?

10 A Uh, broke -- wine. Um, wine, as well, but it
11 might have been dried up by the time -- um, by the time I
12 left. I don't really remember what else.

13 Q In terms of the broken glass you claim was on 14 your bedroom floor, could you describe specifically where 15 it was on your bedroom floor relative to your bed?

16 A Uh, it was around my bed because the paint -- 17 and probably by the entrance of the door, as well, but 18 I'm not exactly sure.

19 Q Okay.

20 A There was a lot of -- we were -- there was a 21 lot of fighting and a lot of movement in several 22 different parts of our room. So when he was holding me
23 down on the bed and I was trying to stand up, that was by 24 the bath -- closer to the bathroom and I know there was 25 broken glass there. When I was -- when I tried to get

1 out of the bedroom door and he blocked it and shoved me
2 back down to the floor by the -- that was by the -- by 3 the entrance to the door. And I can't remember what else
4 was breaking and what had been knocked over. I know the 5 lamp -- the lamp broke, as well. I didn't mention that.
6 It's still in -- in the storage closet. I just saw it
7 the other day. And it has wine on it. You know, I found
8 it the other day. But --

9 Q Did you take pictures of that at any time?

10 A No. Not that I recall.

11 Q Did you bring that with you today?

12 A I did not bring that with me. The lamp?

13 Q Yes.

14 A No, I did not bring the lamp with me today.

15 Q Okay. Were you ever asked to locate any of the 16 items that were -- that you say were damaged or broken
17 from April 21?

18 MR. HARDER: Privilege. Don't answer.

19 (Instruction not to answer)

20 BY MS. BERK:

21 Q Did you ever make any attempts to locate any of 22 the items from 21 -- from April 21 that you say were 23 damaged or broken?

24 A No.

25 Q Okay. And, in fact --

1           A    Oh, my -- yes, I'm sorry. My phone. I tried
2 to find my phone, but I never recovered it.

3           Q    And in the DVRO that you filed with the Court,
4 did you attach any photographs whatsoever from the events
5 you claim on April 21, 2016?

6           MR. HARDER: The Court filing would speak for 7 itself.

8 BY MS. BERK:

9           Q    To your knowledge.

10          A    I don't know what we attached off the top of my

12          Q    Okay. Do you know what you gave any other
13 person for the April 21 -- relating to the April 21
14 events?

15          MR. HARDER: If it has to do with lawyers, it's 16 privileged.

17 BY MS. BERK:

18          Q    Ms. Heard, can you tell me exactly what you say
19 happened, uh, uh, on -- in the argument you had with -- 20 you say you had with Johnny on April 21?

21          A    What was the question exactly if you don't mind
22 me asking?

23          Q    What happened?

24          MR. HARDER: She wants to hear you tell what 25 happened.

1 THE WITNESS: I was -- Johnny and I, when we
2 made it back to our apartment, I was being cold to him.
3 I -- I wasn't being very -- I wasn't being as, you know,
4 open or friendly as I normally am. Um, it was -- I
5 was -- I was crushed that he missed my birthday. And 6 this is after a month of him not coming home like five
7 nights a -- on average five nights a week. Just not
8 showing up or showing up at like 2:00, 3:00, 4:00 o'clock
9 in the morning or at like 8:00 o'clock in the morning,
10 I'd find out that he was passed out at one of the other 11 places in West Hollywood. So it had been building up.

12 And -- and so the birthday incident was 13 heartbreaking. It was my 30th birthday. And I was just 14 so sad about it.

15 MR. HARDER: She --

16 THE WITNESS: So we -- he asked me -- he -- we 17 got in bed and I was just being quiet. I think I picked 18 up my book and tried to read, and he said, um, "What's 19 your fucking problem?"

20 And I said, "I'm just hurt." And I had been 21 seeing this -- you know, I've been trying to get us to 22 see a marriage counselor -- who said that that's how I
23 should like word things, as opposed to it being 24 accusatory, and I said, "I'm just hurt. Hurt that you
25 didn't make it to my birthday party." And then it

1 quickly deteriorated into the normal, "It's my fault.
2 Why do you always blame me for everything? You always
3 blame me for everything."

5 Q Okay.

6 A And then it escalated and he -- I don't know
7 what I said that immediately preceded it, but he -- the 8 first big action was the wine bottle that I remember 9 being thrown at me. Or -- or maybe it was that I was 10 trying to leave. I don't really remember which of the 11 first --

12 Q Was that while you were in the bed that the 13 wine bottle was thrown at you?

14 A No. It was in -- I was standing in the 15 bedroom.

16 Q Okay.

17 A In front of this painting, kind of closer to 18 the bathroom. And when I moved to leave, um, he shoved
19 me at some point, shoved me down on the ground. I stood
20 back up and, um, and then he did -- he did this taunting
21 thing where I guess it -- it was to challenge me to see 22 if I was really going to leave. "You think you're really 23 going to be the little -- want to leave. You really 24 think you're that tough, huh? Tough guy. Tough guy."
25 And then shoved me down again. I stand back up. Again,

1 "You think you're so tough."

2           And eventually I did make it out of the 3 bedroom, um, and -- and, um, I don't -- I don't know if I
4 was walking back from where my clothes are with an
5 overnight bag and I have to pass through the office
6 because of the adjoining apartments, but in my passing
7 him, um, he grabs my hair at some point, um -- well, we 8 were arguing kind of in passing as I'm walking through 9 the office and as I make it around the edge of the desk,
10 it's either a shove to initiate or something with my 11 head, a push or something, and it turns into him grabbing
12 me by the back of my hair. And -- and I -- and I -- and 13 I -- and I -- I -- I said some, you know, comment to him, 14 I don't remember what it was, and walked into the 15 bedroom, grabbed my -- to grab my toothbrush, things like 16 that that I don't keep in -- in my closet room, and in 17 doing that, um, we had more of a -- more of a fight. It
18 was pushing, um, uh -- I -- I put my hands up like this 19 once.

20           MS. BERK: Let the record reflect the witness
21 is raising her hands above her head.

22           MR. HARDER: You're interrupting her. She's 23 being videotaped. Don't interrupt her, please. She's -- 24 she's telling her story.

25           Go ahead.

1           THE WITNESS: Um, yeah. I put my hands up and 2 he did this, he pushed them down, and squared off to me,
3 bumped his chest into mine. I kind of fell back a little 4 bit onto the bed. I stood back up and, um, tried to --
5 tried to get -- walk past him to the door. At some point
6 I end up on the floor. Um, I don't -- um, he walks out.
7 Um, I tried to actually even at that point say, "Don't 8 walk out. Like we just need to talk about it. You know, 9 can we just take a break and then just talk? Because 10 it's my birthday. And I don't want to wake up on my -- 11 you know, my birthday -- we have -- we've had a million
12 of these fights. Just don't leave. I just don't want to 13 wake up on my birthday by myself. Don't go, please."

14           Even though it had gotten violent, this is 15 nothing compared to so many of the other things. I -- it
16 actually wouldn't even be a major thing if -- if it
17 weren't one of the just most recent -- this is not a bad
18 thing. I mean it wasn't bad in my head in relation to 19 what I -- what we have lived through.

20           MR. HARDER: Say what happened.

21           THE WITNESS: Sorry. Um, it -- it escalates.
22 I tried to get him to stop in that moment and he -- and 23 he -- and he broke a bunch of shit in the kitchen. I
24 think he wrote on the countertop -- I think that's one --
25 one of the times he wrote on the countertop in Sharpie

1 some -- some crazy message to me. And I -- I -- I went
2 upstairs. I heard him kind of coming in and out and --
3 and then when I walked downstairs -- it was quiet for a
4 really long time. When I walked back downstairs, there
5 was just a note on the floor that said, you know, "Happy
6 fucking birthday."

7 BY MS. BERK:

8 Q Was there -- was there any other debris on the 9 floor downstairs other than on the countertops in the 10 kitchen?

11 A I don't remember. I know he -- he smashed --
12 he -- he was -- he knocked over lamps and a statue thing
13 and paintings. And he's gotten really into -- he had 14 been punching photographs with me in them recently and 15 this was one of those times, but nothing that I -- 16 nothing downstairs specifically that I remember at this 17 moment.

18 Q Okay. And did I hear you say you had tried to 19 convince Johnny to stay to talk about it?

20 A At some point in the argument, yeah.

21 Q Okay. And were you successful in getting him
22 to stay?

23 A No. No. Just -- just long enough to have it 24 explode.

25 Q And at any --

2 Q To your knowledge that you saw.

3 A I can't remember.

4 Q During the call with iO Wright, please tell us
5 exactly what happened.

6 A She picked up the phone and I said, "Hey, babe,
7 um, just for clarity, I'm here with Johnny, he's upset
8 about some things. Can you just clarify and we can put 9 some things to bed?"

10 She said, "What?"

11 And I said, "Were you over here on the morning 12 of my birthday?"

13 And she said, "Why are you asking me that?"

14 And "Of course I wasn't. I met you in Palm Springs."

15 And I said, "I'm here with Johnny and he's 16 upset about something and I just want to put it to bed."

17 And she said, "No. I" -- you know, like I
18 don't know if she got much more out because he started 19 screaming, grabbed the phone out of my hand -- she was on 20 speakerphone -- and he started yelling at her.

21 Q Were you holding the phone prior to -- the 22 phone that you were speaking to iO Tillett on?

23 A Yeah.

24 Q Okay. And you claim that he then grabbed the 25 phone for you -- from you?

1           A    He grabbed the phone from me and then before he
2 went upstairs, presumably to pack a bag or get some of 3 his things as he indicated to me, he, you know, like 4 tossed it on -- in -- tossed it in my direction or 5 something on the table or on the couch, I can't remember
6 which. I picked it up and I said, "Oh, my God, iO" -- I
7 can't remember if the call disconnected and it was two 8 separate calls or if it was one call, but I remember 9 saying to iO, "Oh, my God, I'm so sorry. I did not call
10 you to get screamed at." Because she answered the phone, 11 the poor thing, without any real expectation, just 12 started being screamed at by Johnny this way, and I
13 didn't want to make it seem like I called her for a setup
14 to just be yelled at. And -- and -- and -- and he was 15 saying, "You know, you dike bitch, you -- you know, your 16 ten cent words and your fucking book deal and your 17 fucking sell out my family," you know, just the worst 18 things that you can -- expletives and -- and -- and very 19 personal things to her situation. And he started to go
20 upstairs and I had the phone in my hand again and I'm on 21 speakerphone, and -- and he -- he makes it upstairs --
22 makes it partway up the stairs and she says, "It is -- it
23 does not sound safe. Get out before it gets worse this 24 time. Get out of there. Get out. It's not safe."

25                   And all of my friends who are informed of our

1 history are very very very very scared of me being alone
2 in a room with him when there are things wrong, when 3 we're fighting, when we're working things out, and when
4 he's using. So she was very clear and on speakerphone
5 saying, "Get out of the house. It's not safe. It
6 doesn't sound safe. Get out." And he heard it and it
7 was -- it -- it was like a -- um, like a -- he just -- he 8 turned around, bolted back down the stairs, grabbed the 9 phone, and -- and -- and started screaming at her even 10 louder this time and even worse this time. And really 11 lit into her. And I'm sitting on the couch. I haven't 12 even gotten up off the couch. My legs were cross-legged.
13 And -- and he -- and he -- he says, "You want her so
14 much, you -- you -- you dike bitch, you want to be her
15 man now, you want to be a man to her now, you can fucking
16 have her." And he winds up his hand -- he winds his arm
17 back and he throws the phone at me. And it -- it hits
18 me, bam, right in the -- what felt like the eye. And it
19 just felt like this pop or what I thought was a pop and 20 it -- it just felt -- I -- it felt -- I -- and I put my 21 head in my hands and when I had my head covered, I didn't 22 know what he was doing or where he was going, but I had 23 my head down and I was saying -- I think I was crying and 24 I said, "You've hit me." It -- it -- it -- it -- and 25 then I -- I could hear him yelling and knocking things

1 over. And I wanted him to know that -- that he had hurt
2 me because sometimes he wouldn't remember these
3 incidences. And so I remember I said, "Johnny, you -- it
4 hit me in the eye." And I don't know -- it felt like
5 my -- it just felt like -- um, it felt like my eye or it
6 could have been my eye and I didn't know, you know, um.

7 Q Okay. Before we get to the injuries, let me
8 just ask you about what you say happened with Ms. Tillett

10 A Sure.

11 Q Was she on the phone during all of this?

12 A Yes. But at the time, I wasn't sure. Because 13 the phone, after it impacted my face, fell on the ground.
14 So . . .

15 Q Okay. Isn't it true that, Ms. Heard, you
16 yelled to Tillett Wright to call 911?

17 A I -- I don't remember yelling that. I'm sure
18 I -- I --

20 MR. HARDER: Well --

21 THE WITNESS: I'm sure I -- I -- I yelled,
22 "Help. Help." I don't know what -- it was traumatic.

23 BY MS. BERK:

24 Q Isn't it the truth, Ms. Heard, that you swore 25 in your declaration at line 11, page 3, that I then

1 yelled out, quote, "Call 911," end quote?

2 A Yeah. Then I -- then I said that. This was 3 taken immediately after and it's been a while.

4 Q Okay. So you did yell to -- for Tillett Wright
5 to call 911 --

6 A Yeah.

7 Q -- correct?

8 A Yeah.

9 Q Okay. But didn't you testify earlier that you
10 had kept these abuse allegations secret?

11 A Not from everybody.

12 Q Okay. So --

13 A There was -- like I said earlier to you, my 14 select -- my select group was starting to become more and 15 more informed of it as time went on. So at the very 16 beginning, I would only tell my mom who -- somebody who 17 understands this sort of situation. And then I --

18 Q So your mom?

19 A And then I --

20 Q You told her that you had been physically
21 abused by Johnny Depp?

22 A Yeah. I would tell her from the -- almost -- 23 almost at the very beginning I confided in her. That's 24 why I had pictures. Yeah.

25 Q Okay. So from the very beginning, to this

1 incident, May 21, you had confided in your mom?

2 A Yeah. I think I probably hid the first few
3 incidences, but very very soon into it, I started to tell
4 her.

5 Q Okay. And you confided in other people,
6 including your friends, correct?

7 A Therapists until -- until it became
8 problematic. Um --

9 Q Okay. When you confided in your therapist --
10 when did you confide in your therapist that you've been a
11 victim of domestic violence?

12 MR. HARDER: I'm -- I'm just going to object on 13 the grounds of the therapist privilege.

14 THE WITNESS: Okay.

15 MS. BERK: She's just told us what she told her 16 therapist, therefore, under the law, she's waived any 17 claim as to privilege for me asking her what she told her
18 therapist.

19 MR. HARDER: Well, that may have been 20 inadvertent. I'm -- I'm asserting it right now. If I -- 21 if I didn't catch it the first time, it was probably 22 quick and I apologize.

23 BY MS. BERK:

24 Q Ms. Heard, when did you have this conversation
25 with your therapist about these events? We don't have to

2 A -- but it was -- it didn't hurt me.

3 Q Okay. And was there any other act of violence
4 against you prior to when he went upstairs, came back
5 downstairs and threw the phone?

6 A I don't -- I don't know if you'd count
7 screaming at me --

8 Q Okay.

9 A -- or -- but no --

10 Q Other than --

11 A -- physical.

12 Q Okay. Other than screaming, had he broken
13 anything in the apartment yet --

14 A Um --

15 Q -- on the floor?

16 A I'm not sure.

17 Q You're not sure?

18 A I'm not sure.

19 Q Okay. Had he thrown any bottles prior to your 20 saying he threw this phone?

21 A I'm not sure. I'm not -- I can't remember now.
22 I'm not sure what -- what he did prior to throwing the 23 phone at me.

24 Q Okay. Was there any broken glass on the -- on 25 the floor where you were prior to his throwing the phone

1 at you?

2 A Was there any broken glass on the floor around.

3 Q Anywhere on the floor of the room you both were 4 in prior to when he threw the phone at you that you were 5 aware of.

6 A At this moment, I don't remember there being 7 any.

8 Q Okay. Okay. And after you say he threw the 9 phone at you, what happened next?

10 (Sotto voce discussion among petitioner's
11 counsel off the record)

12 THE WITNESS: Um, all I remember is him
13 screaming these expletives at my friend iO and telling 14 her that he -- that she could have me now and then he 15 threw his arm back and he threw the phone --

17 Q Okay.

18 A -- at what appeared to be very -- as hard as he 19 could at my face. I put my head down. I said, "You hit
20 me." I was crying. I said, "Johnny, you hit me,"
21 because then I start hearing things being smashed. And I
22 said to him, "Honey, you hit me. You hit me in the eye.
23 My eye. My eye." And I start crying and I -- he 24 approaches me, and I don't know if he -- if I, in feeling
25 him approach, anticipate to try to get up or if I help

1 him help me up or if he just did it all by grabbing my 2 hair, but for some reason, I mean, I had some aid in 3 getting up off the couch by him -- him grabbing my head,
4 mostly on my right side like a -- the impact of which was 5 significant in and of itself. He grabs my -- he grab --
6 grabs my head, takes a fist full of my hair and says, "I
7 hit your eye? I hit your eye, huh? Let me see your eye.
8 Let me see. Let me see your eye. What if I pull your 9 hair back?" And he yanks my head back and he's -- I
10 don't know, smacking my face or moving my face or -- and 11 he's got me by the hair and he's, um -- it's hard to 12 describe. It's -- he was like yanking me from side to 13 side with my -- with my hair.

14 Q Are you standing up at this time?

15 A Yeah.

16 Q Okay. And has he pulled out any hair from your 17 head?

18 A I -- he's still holding on to my head --

19 Q Okay.

20 A -- at this time and he said -- um, I don't know
21 if he's trying to grab my face or he's hitting my face.
22 I don't know what's happening, but he's yelling at me,
23 he's screaming about -- about my -- about "Let's see how 24 hard I hit you." And -- and I'm screaming at the top of 25 my lungs --

1 Q Okay.

2 A -- "Help, help. Please help." I guess I say
3 call 911. I'm screaming for help, not just in case it is 4 on the phone, which I don't know, because the phone is 5 somewhere -- after hitting my face, I don't know where it
6 ricocheted and bounced off to -- but it's on the floor.
7 I can only hope she's on the line. But I know and guess
8 security is somewhere. And even though they never 9 respond when I'm screaming "Help" ever, I'm screaming
10 "Help" as loud as I can. I also text Rocky previous, 11 "It's amping up. It's getting crazy again. Please just 12 I need you to come over." Because I thought another

20 MR. HARDER: Can we take a break, please.

21 MS. BERK: No.

22 MR. HARDER: She's upset. She's upset.

23 MS. BERK: She has not --

24 MR. HARDER: It's clear that she -- yeah.

25 She's crying and she's upset.

1 THE WITNESS: It's okay.

2 MR. HARDER: Blair, how can you possibly force
3 her to answer questions --

4 MS. BERK: Because I see --

5 MR. HARDER: -- when she's crying --

6 MS. BERK: -- the witness is not --

7 MR. HARDER: -- and upset?

8 MS. BERK: -- upset and hasn't requested.

20 THE WITNESS: I answered as well.

CSR No. 5189

1 Q And he broke wine bottles?

2 A I don't know to what ex- -- what -- I don't
3 know what things he broke in front of them or what 4 happened -- I am on the couch crying, being covered by my 5 best friend after having this happen to me, so I have 6 limited ability to tell you what exactly was broken
7 when -- when Jerry or Sean's eyes are pointed in any 8 specific direction.

9 Q And you're claiming that Sean Bett and Jerry 10 Judge stood there and did nothing, though, while this was 11 happening, correct?

12 A They weren't there the whole time.

13 Q During the period they were there, your claim
14 is that they did nothing, correct?

15 A They walked in and most of it had been done.
16 Um, he had already, um, charged at me till Raquel threw 17 herself in between us, put her arms up to protect us. He 18 had already pushed Raquel's arms away, intimidated her.
19 We're both back down on the couch. She's protecting me
20 and he's screaming at me at the top of his lungs, which I
21 can only guess served as the impetus to get Jerry Judge
22 and Sean into the room. While he's screaming at -- at me
23 and I'm looking down and he's screaming at me and taking 24 a step closer and screaming louder each time, "Get the 25 fuck up, Amber. Get the fuck up. Get the fuck up.

1 Amber, you hear me? Get the fuck up."

2 And I can only imagine, because it was so loud
3 toward the end, that they came in. I -- so I can't tell
4 you the exact moment, was it at the third threat or the 5 tenth threat when they walked in, but at some point they 6 walked in --

7 Q Was --

8 A -- and --

9 Q Was --

10 A -- he turned his head and I hopped up off the 11 couch, ran to the side corner of the room and said,
12 "Jerry, help me. If he hits -- if he hits me one more
13 time, I will call the -- I will call the police."

14 Q But you'd already asked to call 911 by that 15 point, correct?

16 A I didn't know if iO was even on the phone when 17 I was screaming.

18 MS. BERK: Objection. Nonresponsive. Move to 19 strike.

20 Q You had already asked to call 911 by the time
21 you say Jerry Judge was there, correct?

22 A That's incorrect, because that's to assume that 23 I knew somebody -- I had somebody to whom I could ask to 24 call.

25 Q Did you ask to call 911 prior to when Jerry

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

In re the Marriage of

Petitioner: AMBER LAURA DEPP

and

No. BD641052

Respondent: JOHN CHRISTOPHER DEPP
II (AKA JOHNNY DEPP)

VIDEOTAPED DEPOSITION OF AMBER LAURA DEPP

August 13, 2016

10:00 a.m. - 7:04 p.m.

2049 Century Park East, Suite 800

Los Angeles, California

Reported by:

PAMELA J. FELTEN

CSR No. 5189

1 Q Did you ever tell any officers at your house on
2 May 21, 2016 that the -- that Johnny Depp had ever done
3 anything wrong to you that night or before?

4 A You're asking me if I've told them --

5 Q If you --

6 A -- that he --

7 Q -- told them on May 21, yes.

8 A Again, I said to them, "I decline to give any 9 statement at this time as per the advice of my counsel."

10 Q Did the police --

11 A They did make a comment to me about it seeming 12 unsafe, that's why they needed to check the apartment.
13 They made a gesture to my face. They said I looked hurt.
14 They also pulled me aside and said, "Look, just say -- 15 just say a statement. We can make sure you're safe, just 16 say statement or give us a statement and we'll go get the 17 guy." And they said the exact same thing to Josh.

18 Q Is it your testimony that a police officer on 19 May 21 --

20 A Yes.

21 Q -- told you that it appeared you looked hurt?

22 A He gestured -- he or she gestured, I can't 23 remember which one, to my face and said, "It's -- we can 24 tell you've been hurt" or "You don't look good" or 25 something to that effect, but I don't remember the exact

1 words they used.

2 Q But something to that effect?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Is it your testimony -- well, let me ask you.

5 Did the officers ever say they saw enough to arrest

6 Johnny when they were with you on May 21, 2016?

7 A Well, they said to both myself and Josh that 8 all I needed to do was give a statement in order for them
9 to go get the guy or go make an arrest. Maybe they 10 didn't use the word arrest to me, but . . .

11 Q And your testimony is here today that one of 12 the officers told you that?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And was it a male officer or female officer?

15 A Like I said, I -- I -- I -- really I can't 16 remember which one it was.

17 Q During --

18 A They asked --

19 Q -- the time the police arrived -- from the time
20 the police arrived till they left, did you ever at any 21 time call any other human being on a telephone?

23 BY MS. BERK:

24 Q While the police were at your property on 25 Broadway, did you ever call on the telephone any other

DECLARATION OF PETITIONER
AMBER LAURA DEPP

2 ATTACHMENT TO FORM DV-100

3 DECLARATION OF AMBER LAURA DEPP

4 I, AMBER LAURA DEPP, declare as follows:

5 1. I am the Petitioner herein. I have firsthand personal knowledge of the facts stated
6 herein and if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.

7 2. I submit this declaration in support of my Request for CLETS Domestic Violence
8 Restraining Orders against Respondent John Christopher Depp II aka Johnny Depp ("Johnny").
9 I am also requesting pendente lite spousal support, exclusive possession of the residence located 10 at 849 S. Broadway in downtown Los Angeles ("Broadway residence"), exclusive possession of 11 the 2015 Range Rover vehicle, and attorneys' fees.

12 3. Johnny and I began living together in or about 2012, and we were married on 13 February 3, 2015. We do not have any children together.

14 4. During the entirety of our relationship, Johnny has been verbally and physically 15 abusive to me. I endured excessive emotional, verbal and physical abuse from Johnny, which 16 has included angry, hostile, humiliating and threatening assaults to me whenever I questioned 17 his authority or disagreed with him.

18 5. Johnny has a long-held and widely-acknowledged public and private history of 19 drug and alcohol abuse. He has a short fuse. He is often paranoid and his temper is 20 exceptionally scary for me as it has proven many times to be physically dangerous and/or life-
21 threatening to me. Johnny relationship with reality oscillates, depending upon his interaction with 22 alcohol and drugs. As Johnny's paranoia, delusions and aggression increased throughout our 23 relationship so has my awareness of his continued substance abuse. Because of this, I am 24 extremely afraid of Johnny and for my safety. I am petrified he will return at any moment to the 25 Broadway residence, to which he has full access to despite my repeated pleas to his security
26 team to prevent otherwise and to protect me, if restraining orders are not immediately issued.
27 I strongly believe that in addition to DVROs, Johnny also requires enrollment in anger
28 management courses and a Batterer's intervention program.

2 Recent Events Supporting the Basis of the Instant DVRO Request

3 6. Since early 2013 and throughout the entirety of our marriage, Johnny and I have 4 resided at the Broadway residence. The residence is compromised of connected units. I am
5 requesting exclusive possession and use of the 3 unit condominium (i.e., Units 3, 4 and 5).

6 7. On April 21, 2016, I celebrated my birthday with my friends at the Broadway
7 residence. As everyone was preparing to leave my birthday party, Johnny showed up, inebriated
8 and high. After my guests had left, Johnny and I had a discussion about his absence from my 9 birthday celebration which deteriorated into a bad argument that started with Johnny throwing a 10 magnum size bottle of champagne at the wall and a wine glass on me and the floor --both which 11 shattered. Johnny then grabbed me by the shoulders and pushed me onto the bed, blocking the 12 bedroom door. He then grabbed me by the hair and violently shoved me to the floor. Johnny was 13 also screaming and threatening me, taunting me to stand up. After several minutes, Johnny 14 stormed out of the condominium, but not before tossing aside and breaking nearly everything in 15 his path.

16 8. I did not see Johnny again for another month.

17 9. The next time I saw him was on May 21, 2016. He arrived at the Broadway
18 residence at approximately 7:15 p.m. He was inebriated and high. At the time of Johnny's arrival,
19 my friend Elizabeth Marz was present, along with my friend Raquel Rose Pennington and her 20 fiancé Joshua Drew who live in the adjacent apartment at the Broadway residence.

21 10. When Johnny arrived, at first, we were having a peaceful conversation in our living
22 room talking about his mother's passing as I tried to comfort him while we sat on the couch.
23 Suddenly, he began obsessing about something that was untrue and his demeanor changed
24 dramatically. He became extremely angry. I tried to calm Johnny down by calling one of his 25 trusted employees to alleviate his misplaced concerns, but it did not work.

26 11. Johnny was becoming increasingly enraged. I began to have concerns for my 27 safety and sent a text to my friend Raquel who was in the condominium next door. I texted her 28 to ask her to come over. As Johnny continued to rant in an aggressive and incoherent manner,

2 he then demanded we call our friend iO Tillet Wright ("iO") to prove his paranoid and irrational 3 accusations about some delusional idea he was having.

4 12. As my call to iO went through on speaker phone, Johnny ripped the cell phone
5 from my hand and began screaming profanities and insults at iO. I heard iO yell at me to get out
6 of the house. Johnny then grabbed the cell phone, wound up his arm like a baseball pitcher and 7 threw the cell phone at me striking my cheek and eye with great force.

8 13. I immediately covered my face and was crying because of the pain resulting from 9 the phone hitting me. Johnny charged at me, insisting on seeing my face. He taunted me,
10 challenged whether or not the cell phone actually hit me. He then forcefully pulled back my hair
11 as I attempted to stand up from the sofa. I then yelled out "Call 911" – hoping it would be heard
12 by iO who was still on the phone. Johnny continued screaming at me, pulling my hair, striking me 13 and violently grabbing my face.

14 14. Raquel entered the condominium using the key I had previously provided to her.
15 I then escaped Johnny's grasp as he momentarily seemed distracted by Raquel's entrance.

16 15. Johnny then charged me again after I had moved to the other side of the room.
17 Raquel ran in between us and begged Johnny to stop. He then slapped away her arms that she 18 had extended in a defensive manner and continued to yell obscenities at her.

19 16. I retreated to the couch. Raquel then came over to cover me in a protectively
20 posture, while Johnny then picked up the magnum size bottle of wine he had been drinking out 21 of, and he started swinging it around, smashing everything he could.

22 17. Johnny then stormed at me once again, demanding that I get up and stand. He 23 did this – about ten times – getting closer to me, louder and more threatening each time.
24 Johnny's security team, that included, Judge Jerry, entered the condominium at this time, but they 25 stood back without saying or doing anything. I yelled to Jerry to please help me and told him that 26 if Johnny hit me one more time I was going to call the police. I heard Jerry say, "Boss, Please."
27 But Johnny continued screaming and breaking things, finally leaving the condominium.

28 18. As Johnny went down the hallway, he smashed another bottle of wine and then

2 went into the adjoining condominium unit I use as my office, painting studio and closet. I could 3 hear him destroying items of my personal property as he continued screaming.

4 19. Joshua and Raquel took me into their condominium for safety. Eventually I did not
5 hear Johnny any more.

6 20. Collectively attached hereto as Exhibit "A" are photographs depicting the injuries
7 to my face and the property damage caused by Johnny.

8 21. I live in fear that Johnny will return to the Broadway residence unannounced to 9 terrorize me, physically and emotionally. I require the protection of this Court via the issuance
10 of Domestic Violence restraining orders. There also have been several prior incidents of 11 domestic violence with Johnny, in particular there was one severe incident in December 2015
12 when I truly feared that my life was in danger.

13 22. In addition to the DVROs I am seeking, as I have no place to live other than the 14 Broadway residence (my home for the past two years), I am requesting exclusive use and 15 possession of said property. I also require exclusive use and possession of the Range Rover
16 vehicle, which I am currently using. Further, I am requesting possession of my dog Pistol.

17 23. Although Johnny is extremely wealthy, he refuses to provide me with any direct 18 financial support. Concurrent with this filing I am providing an Income and Expense Declaration.
19 I am requesting $50,000 a month as and for pendente lite spousal support based on our marital 20 lifestyle.

21 24. Except as to that which is based on information and belief, I have personal 22 knowledge of the matters set forth herein and, and if sworn as a witness, I could and would 23 competently testify thereto. This declaration is being submitted in lieu of personal testimony
24 pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure §§ 2009 and 2015.5, California Rules of Court, Rule 5.118(f), 25 and Reifler v. Superior Court (1974) 39 Cal.App.3d 479.

26 I declare, under penalty of perjury pursuant to the laws of the State of California, that the 27 foregoing is true and correct. Executed this 26th day of May, 2016 at Los Angeles, California

3 DECLARATION OF RAQUEL ROSE PENNINGTON

4 I, RAQUEL ROSE PENNINGTON, declare as follows:

5 1. I have firsthand personal knowledge of the facts stated herein and if called as a
6 witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.

7 2. I submit this declaration in support of Petitioner AMBER LAURA DEPP's ("Amber")
8 Request for CLETS Domestic Violence Restraining Orders against Respondent John Christopher 9 Depp II aka Johnny Depp ("Johnny").

10 3. I have been friends with Amber since 2003. My fiancé Joshua Drew and I live in 11 one of the condominiums located at 849 South Broadway in Los Angeles. I have a key to the 12 condominium units which Amber shares with Johnny.

13 4. On May 21, 2016, I was in my condominium with Joshua when I received a text
14 message from Amber at approximately 8:06 p.m., asking me to come over to her condominium 15 unit.

16 5. I immediately went over to Amber's place. When I got to the door, I could hear
17 Amber and Johnny arguing inside. I knocked on the locked door, but there was no answer, so 18 I quickly ran back to my apartment to get my key to open Amber's door.

19 6. I returned to Amber's condominium less than a minute later. When I opened the 20 door, I saw Amber by the couch in the living room covering her head with her arms and hands, 21 as Johnny was loudly screaming at her.

22 7. I ran over and stood in between Johnny and Amber, begging Johnny to stop yelling
23 at her. I put my hands out in a defensive manner motioning him to stop. Johnny slapped my 24 hands away and screamed foul obscenities at me. I then tried to covered Amber up with my body 25 to protect her from him.

26 8. Johnny picked up a magnum size bottle of wine and began swinging it like a 27 baseball bat. Wine was flying all over the walls, floors and furniture, and he began using the 28 bottle to smash everything he could.

2 9. He then charged at Amber, screaming at her to stand up. He repeatedly yelled
3 at Amber to stand up -- about ten times -- and each time, he got closer, louder and more 4 threatening.

5 10. Johnny's security team then arrived, which included Jerry Judge, but they each
6 stood back and did not say or do anything.

7 11. Amber pleaded with Jerry to help and said that if Johnny hit her one more time she 8 was going to call the police.

9 12. Jerry said "Boss. Please."

10 13. Johnny continued screaming and breaking things, before finally walking out of the 11 apartment and into the hallway where he continued screaming and breaking things.

12 14. I could hear Johnny go into Amber's private condominium, where she keeps her 13 personal belongings and artwork, and continue to scream and break things.

14 15. Joshua came into the condominium unit and together we took Amber into our 15 condominium unit for safety.

16 16. I observed that Amber sustained a significant injury to her right eye as a result of 17 the incident with Johnny, as there was redness and swelling. Amber was crying, shaking and very 18 afraid of Johnny.

19 17. Finally, I heard Johnny leave the premises. I then took pictures of Amber's face
20 which are attached as Exhibit "A" to the Declaration of Amber.

21 18. Many times over the past few years, Amber has confided and complained to me
22 about Johnny's abusing her, both physically and verbally.

DECLARATION OF SAMANTHA F.
SPECTOR, ESQ. RE EX PARTE NOTICE
AND IN SUPPORT OF PETITIONER AMBER
LAURA DEPP'S DVRO REQUEST

Date: May 27, 2016
Time: 8:30 a.m.
Dept.: 6

I, SAMANTHA F. SPECTOR, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney at law duly licensed to practice before all court of the State of California and I am the managing attorney at Spector Law, APLC, attorneys of record for Petitioner, Amber Laura Depp, herein. I have firsthand personal knowledge of the facts stated herein and if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.

EX PARTE NOTICE GIVEN

2. On May 26, 2016, at approximately 9:45 a.m., I telephoned Respondent John Christopher Depp II's ("Johnny") counsel, Laura Wasser, Esq. I asked to speak to Ms. Wasser and was told she was not available. I then requested to speak to Samantha Klein, Esq., and was also told she was unavailable. I was then directed to voicemails for both; instead I asked to speak

1 to Ms. Wasser's assistant, Linda Bigbee, and was told she too was unavailable and directed to 2 her voicemail.

3 3. I left a voicemail for Ms. Wasser at 9:45 a.m. and advised her that Petitioner,
4 Amber Laura Depp ("Amber"), would be appearing ex parte at 8:30 a.m. on Friday, May 27, 2016,
5 in Department 6 of the Los Angeles Superior Court located at 111 North Hill Street, Los Angeles,
6 California 90012 on the instant matter. Specifically, I stated that Amber would be requesting a DV
7 CLETS TRO against Respondent John Christopher Depp II ("Johnny"), including requests for: (1)
8 pendente lite spousal support payable by Johnny to Amber; (2) Amber's exclusive use and 9 possession of the 849 S. Broadway residence; (3) exclusive use and possession of the black
10 Range Rover vehicle which Amber is currently driving; (4) Amber's exclusive possession of the 11 dogs, Pistol and Boo; and (5) a contributive payment by Johnny for Amber's attorney fees and 12 accounting costs.

13 4. I then sent a follow-up email to Ms. Wasser stating all of the above in writing, and 14 copying Ms. Klein and Ms. Bigbee. A true and correct copy of my email to Ms. Wasser dated 15 May 26, 2016 at 9:52 a.m., confirming my ex parte notice, is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

16 5. Thereafter, at approximately 9:59 a.m. I was able to speak directly to Mrs. Klein
17 and I advised her of all of the above via telephone.

18 ATTEMPTS TO RESOLVE ISSUES PRIOR TO INSTANT EX PARTE AND DVRO REQUEST

19 6. I attempted to resolve this matter with Johnny's counsel prior to giving notice for 20 the instant Request for Order re: Domestic Violence Restraining Orders.

21 7. On May 24, 2016, I sent a letter to Johnny's business attorney, Jacob A. Bloom.
22 I stated that, although Amber had been attacked and remained in fear for her safety, given the 23 notoriety of both parties and the high likelihood of press harassment, Amber would prefer to settle
24 the matter amicably out of Court. A true and correct copy of my letter to Mr. Bloom dated May 25 24, 2016, is attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

26 I declare, under penalty of perjury pursuant to the laws of the State of California, that the 27 foregoing is true and correct. Executed this 27th day of May 2016, at Los Angeles, California.

Re: In re Marriage of Depp

Dear Mr. Bloom:

Please be advised that our firm has filed a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage on behalf of Amber Depp.

As you may be aware, your client and Amber's husband, Johnny Depp, violently attacked and threatened Amber on Saturday night, May 21st, in their penthouse apartment located at 849 S. Broadway. There are several witnesses to this particular incident, and there are photographs depicting the property damage Johnny caused, as well as the physical injuries he inflicted on Amber.

Unfortunately, this is not the first incident of domestic violence perpetrated by Johnny against Amber. In fact, there have been two other incidents in the past six months. Although Amber is afraid of Johnny, she strongly insists that we do everything possible to keep this personal matter out of the media spotlight, which is why she has not yet sought a CLETS DV TRO and why we did not arrange for Johnny to have been personally served at last night's movie premiere.

Amber wishes to work quickly towards a private and amicable resolution of all matters, but she will need Johnny's immediate cooperation to do so. To this end, please have Johnny promptly sign and return by Friday, May 27, 2016, the enclosed Notice and Acknowledgment of Receipt form (FL-117 form) confirming service of the Summons, Petition, Family Law Case Cover Sheet and blank Response (FL-120 form). If the requested Notice is not signed and the original executed form is not returned to me by May 27th, we will have no alternative but to arrange for Johnny to be personally served.

In addition, we are requesting on Amber's behalf the following: (i) appropriate pendente lite support; (ii) exclusive use and possession of the black Range Rover, the vehicle she is currently driving, with Johnny to continue to make all payments for any encumbrances thereon; (iii) exclusive use and possession of 849 S. Broadway, Penthouse Nos. 1, 3 and 5 with Johnny to continue to pay mortgage, utilities, etc. associated therewith; and (iv) a contribution towards her reasonable and necessary attorney's fees in the amount of $100,000 and $25,000 for forensic accounting costs, to be paid to my firm by close of business (5:00 pm) on May 27, 2016.

Further, I believe it would be beneficial for all if this case was assigned to a private retired judicial officer for all purposes. My proposed list of private retired judicial officers is as follows: Hon. Gretchen Taylor, Hon. Robert Schneider or Hon. Melinda Johnson. The fees of the judicial officer can be paid with funds from the parties' community estate. Kindly let me know at your earliest convenience if you and your client are agreeable to doing so as well as which judicial officers are acceptable. Upon hearing from you, I will have my assistant obtain rates and availabilities.

We are indeed hopeful that we can swiftly work out mutually acceptable short and long term solutions outside of the public eye.

Thank you. I look forward to your prompt follow up and reply.

VERY TRULY YOURS,
SPECTOR LAW, APLC

Warnings and Notices to the Restrained Person in ②

If you do not obey this order, you can be arrested and charged with a crime.

- If you do not obey this order, you can go to jail or prison and/or pay a fine.
- It is a felony to take or hide a child in violation of this order.
- If you travel to another state or to tribal lands or make the protected person do so, with the intention of disobeying this order, you can be charged with a federal crime.

This is a Court Order.

You cannot have guns, firearms, and/or ammunition.

You cannot own, have, possess, buy or try to buy, receive or try to receive, or otherwise get guns, other firearms, and/or ammunition while the order is in effect. If you do, you can go to jail and pay a $1,000 fine. You must sell to or store with a licensed gun dealer or turn in to a law enforcement agency any guns or other firearms that you have or control. The judge will ask you for proof that you did so. If you do not obey this order, you can be charged with a crime. Federal law says you cannot have guns or ammunition while the order is in effect.

Service of Order by Mail

If the judge makes a restraining order at the hearing, which has the same orders as in this form, you will get a copy of that order by mail at your last known address, which is written in ②. If this address is incorrect, or to find out if the orders were made permanent, contact the court.

Child Custody, Visitation, and Support

- Child custody and visitation: If you do not go to the hearing, the judge can make custody and visitation orders for your children without hearing from you.
- Child support: The judge can order child support based on the income of both parents. The judge can also have that support taken directly from a parent's paycheck. Child support can be a lot of money, and usually you have to pay until the child is age 18. File and serve a Financial Statement (Simplified) (Form FL-155) or an Income and Expense Declaration (Form FL-150) if you want the judge to have information about your finances. Otherwise, the court may make support orders without hearing from you.
- Spousal support: File and serve an Income and Expense Declaration (Form FL-150) so the judge will have information about your finances. Otherwise, the court may make support orders without hearing from you.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

This order is effective when made. It is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the agency shall advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then shall enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Arrest Required if Order Is Violated

If an officer has probable cause to believe that the restrained person had notice of the order and has disobeyed the order, the officer must arrest the restrained person. (Penal Code, §§ 836(c)(1), 13701(b).) A violation of the order may be a violation of Penal Code section 166 or 273.6.

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, the orders remain in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The orders can be changed only by another court order. (Pen. Code, §13710(b).)

This is a Court Order.

Conflicting Orders--Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued protecting the protected person from the restrained person, the orders must be enforced according to the following priorities (see Pen. Code, § 136.2, and Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h), 6405(b)):

1. EPO: If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (Form EPO-001), and it is more restrictive than other restraining or protective orders, it has precedence in enforcement over all other orders.
2. No-Contact Order: If there is no EPO, a no-contact order that is included in a restraining or protective order has precedence in enforcement over any other restraining or protective order.
3. Criminal Order: If none of the orders includes a no-contact order, a domestic violence protective order issued in a criminal case takes precedence in enforcement over any conflicting civil court order. Any nonconflicting terms of the civil restraining order remain in effect and enforceable.
4. Family, Juvenile, or Civil Order: If more than one family, juvenile, or other civil restraining or protective order has been issued, the one that was issued last must be enforced.

Child Custody and Visitation

- The custody and visitation orders are on Form DV-140, items ③ and ④. They are sometimes also written on additional pages or referenced in DV-140 or other orders that are not part of the restraining order.
- Forms DV-100 and DV-105 are not orders. Do not enforce them.

Certificate of Compliance With VAWA

This temporary protective order meets all "full faith and credit" requirements of the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. § 2265 (1994) (VAWA) upon notice of the restrained person. This court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter; the restrained person has been or will be afforded notice and a timely opportunity to be heard as provided by the laws of this jurisdiction. This order is valid and entitled to enforcement in each jurisdiction throughout the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands, and all U.S. territories, commonwealths, and possessions and shall be enforced as if it were an order of that jurisdiction.

(Clerk will fill out this part.)

-Clerk's Certificate-

I certify that this Temporary Restraining Order is a true and correct copy of the original on file in the court.

nt at an airport.

The 30-year-old actress was taken into custody and booked for misdemeanor domestic violence after she allegedly struck Ree at the Seattle-Tacoma International airport.

And while the two split years ago, Ree is speaking out in support of her ex-girlfriend.

"In 2009, Amber was wrongfully accused for an incident that was misinterpreted and over-sensationalized by two individuals in a powerful position," her statement, which was obtained by E! News, began.

"I recount hints of misogynistic attitudes toward us which alter appeared to be homophobic when they found out we were domestic partners and not just 'friends.' Charges were quickly dropped and she was released moments later."

Photos Court Appearances

Ree continued, "It's disheartening that Amber's integrity and story are being questioned yet again. Amber is a brilliant, honest and beautiful woman and I have the utmost respect for her. We shared 5 wonderful years together and remain close to this day."

Details of the former couple's past incident went public in the wake of Amber's divorce proceedings with Johnny Depp.

Days after initially filing, she asked the court for a domestic violence restraining order against the actor, which was subsequently granted.

Johnny's rep told E! News at the time, "Given the brevity of this marriage and the most recent and tragic loss of his mother, Johnny will not respond to any of the salacious false stories, gossip, misinformation and lies about his personal life. Hopefully, the dissolution of this short marriage will be resolved quickly."

DECLARATION OF iO TILLET WRIGHT

I, iO TILLET WRIGHT, declare as follows:

1. I have firsthand personal knowledge of the facts stated herein and if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.

2. I submit this declaration in support of Petitioner AMBER LAURA DEPP'S Request for a CLETS Domestic Violence Restraining Order against Respondent JOHN CHRISTOPHER DEPP II aka JOHNNY DEPP.

3. On the evening of May 21, 2016, I received a telephone call from Amber asking me to talk to Johnny on the speakerphone, because he was very upset over something he thought someone had done to him. Amber said she wanted me to assist her in hopefully calming Johnny down, by assuring him that what he believed had happened was not true.

4. Immediately thereafter, I heard Johnny launch into a cruel and vicious rage, screaming "What if I pulled your hair back?"

5. I then heard Amber crying in fear and begging Johnny to stop his attack, thereafter I heard Amber scream out "Call 911" before the call disconnected.

6. I called 911 to save Amber's life.

7. Attached hereto as Exhibit "A" is a true and correct copy of the article I wrote about the frequently abusive and tormenting relationship that I observed Amber having endured with Johnny, before she finally found the strength and courage to stand up to his abusive behavior.

Signed under penalty of perjury, this date of June 13, 2016 at New York, New York.

I called 911 because she never would. Because every time it happened, her first thought was about protecting him. Because every time it happened, the sweet, loving man we all cared for so much would come back with apologies, profuse, swearing up and down that he understood how bad what he had done was, and swearing never to do it again. We all loved him, but especially, especially her, and she wanted to believe that the behavior wasn't going to last.

The reports of violence started with a kick on a private plane, then it was shoves and the occasional punch, until finally, in December, she described an all-out assault and she woke up with her pillow covered in blood. I know this because I went to their house. I saw the pillow with my own eyes. I saw the busted lip and the clumps of hair on the floor. I got the phone call immediately after it happened, her screaming and crying, a stoic woman reduced to sobs.

I understood her heartbreak. He had been my friend, too, a person I loved very much. A person I had once referred to as a brother. A person with whom I had laughed at the absurdity of the media and their spicy claims about my role in their family. A person who came to my rescue in my darkest hour, who I have credited with saving my own life, who I lived with for a year by his invitation while I healed and worked. I knew him to be soft and gentle, with a temper and a dark side, but a golden heart. I didn't want to believe it either, until I saw the wreckage.

When you call someone your brother, you also commit to calling them out when they are wrong. As she, shaking and crying, described this 195-pound man throwing the full weight of his body into head-butting his 120-pound wife in the face in a fit of rage, I found that an unforgivable line in my heart had been crossed.

I witnessed firsthand the absolutely baffling mental pretzel that an abused person puts themselves into, trying to balance the desire to protect their aggressor, with the knowledge that their swollen face is unacceptable. I listened as she cycled through things she could've possibly done to provoke him, or how she could've made him upset enough to do this.

CREATE THE MOST FERTILE BREEDING GROUND FOR IT TO THRIVE.

I sat and listened, my own heart aching because I had so much care for the tender, generous man inside of all this rage, and yet...the bottom, unequivocal line is, nothing she ever could have said or done deserves what she describes as him dragging her up the stairs by the hair,

NOW READING
punching her in the back of the head, choking her until she almost passed out, and smashing
Why He Called Her into her nose until it almost broke.

We say domestic violence is bad, we condemn it. But as a culture, we create the most fertile breeding ground for it to thrive. The cycle of abuse is perpetuated by every person who asserts that the victim more likely punched themselves rather than addressing the very real evidence of violence in front of them. The culture of victim-blaming is the very thing that protects abusers' ability to get away with this kind of behavior.

Right now, every battered woman in the world is watching this media circus, internalizing the message that when they come forward for help, when they break the cycle, they will be called a gold digger, a cheater, and be accused of having faked it all for attention.

I'm looking at every journalist, every editor, every person who puts a comment on an article pointing an uneducated finger. You are the lynch mob. You are a deafening chorus. Your searching for an explanation for why he would have hit her sends the clear message that there CAN be a reason why someone hits their spouse.

It doesn't matter what was said between the two lovers, it doesn't matter if the romance was coming to an end, because nothing warrants that response. No person, ever, should suffer violence at the hands of the person they love.

I watched a woman with a broken spirit go on national television the next night, covered in makeup, smiling through a bloody lip, who nearly jumped out of her seat when someone casually put a hand on her shoulder because she didn't know what was coming.

That's why, when it happened again, when I was on the phone with both of them and heard it drop, heard him say, "What if I pulled your hair back?" and her scream for my help, I wondered like so many times before if I should break the code of silence that surrounds celebrities and invite the police into the situation, and in a split second decided that, yes, I was going to. Because I realized that as long as I was protecting the abuser from consequences, I was enabling the abuse and I could no longer partake. I had to stand up for my friend, and for what I believe in my gut to be the code of conduct by which human beings have to behave with each other.

Whether we loved him or not has nothing to do with it. When it comes to violence, "love" is no longer part of the equation.

1           3.3.4 On or before December 31, 2016, Petitioner shall vacate and/or cause any third
2 parties to vacate penthouse unit 3. Commencing September 1, 2016, Petitioner shall make penthouse
3 unit 3 available to be shown to prospective buyers of the property upon 48 hours written notice.
4 Petitioner shall ensure that penthouse unit 3 is clean and in good condition for any and all properly
5 noticed showings. A representative of Petitioner shall be present to ensure that no pictures or 6 personal belongings are taken during showings.

7           3.3.5 Petitioner and Respondent shall meet and confer to divide the furniture and 8 furnishings contained in penthouse units 3 and 5. Furniture and furnishings shall specifically exclude
9 any and all items in penthouse unit 2 and any and all artwork located in any of Respondent's
10 residences or office, which shall be awarded to Respondent as his separate property. Petitioner shall 11 be awarded as her separate property any and all of her personal possessions, clothing, jewelry, books,
12 etc. Respondent's representatives shall retrieve any and all of his personal possessions, clothing,
13 instruments, books, jewelry and artwork from penthouse units 1, 2, and 4 on or before August 15, 14 2016. After the parties have met and conferred, and agreed upon the division of the furniture and 15 furnishings in penthouse units 3 and 5, Respondent's representatives shall retrieve items awarded to 16 Respondent from said units.

17 4. EQUALIZATION PAYMENT

18           4.1 To effectuate an equal division of the community estate and to resolve all other issues
19 between the parties, Respondent shall pay to Petitioner the sum of $7,000,000, as follows:

20           4.1.1 $200,000 on or before August 31, 2016. Petitioner and Respondent
21 acknowledge and agree that said payment was made by Respondent as follows: $100,000 to the 22 American Civil Liberties Union and $100,000 to Children's Hospital of Los Angeles. Petitioner and 23 Respondent further acknowledge and agree that Respondent shall be entitled to claim this charitable 24 contribution on his federal and state income tax returns.

25           4.1.2 $1,000,000 within three (3) days of entry of this Judgment;

26 ///

27 ///

- 22 -

1           4.1.3 Respondent shall make additional payments to Petitioner on or before the dates
2 listed below, unless this Judgment has not yet been executed by Petitioner and her counsel, in which 3 event the payment shall be delayed until the execution of the Judgment:

4                   4.1.3.1                   $1,000,000 on or before February 1, 2017;

5                   4.1.3.2                   $1,000,000 on or before May 1, 2017;

6                   4.1.3.3                   $1,000,000 on or before August 1, 2017;

7                   4.1.3.4                   $500,000 on or before November 1, 2017; and

8                   4.1.3.5                   $2,300,000 on or before February 1, 2018.

9           4.2     The payments set forth in paragraph 4.1 above shall accelerate upon the sale of the 10 real property owned by Respondent in France (referenced in paragraph 3.2 above). Within ten (10)
11 business days of the close of escrow on the real property in France, Respondent shall pay Petitioner 12 25% of the net proceeds from the sale up to the full amount of the equalization payment then due and 13 owing to Petitioner pursuant to paragraph 4.1 above. This payment shall be made directly through 14 escrow. Under no circumstances shall Petitioner be entitled to more than the $7,000,000 equalization
15 payment set forth in paragraph 4.1 above. Further, under no circumstances shall Respondent's
16 obligation to pay the full amount of the equalization payment of $7,000,000 to Petitioner as set forth 17 in paragraph 4.1 above be extinguished or discharged by any type of bankruptcy proceedings,
18 bankruptcy procedure, the filing of a petition (voluntary or involuntary) declaring Respondent
19 personally or any of his related corporations bankrupt and thereafter unable to meet Respondent's
20 payment obligations due to Petitioner.

21           4.3     The equalization payments set forth in paragraph 4.1 above shall be secured by 22 Respondent's back-end compensation from Pirates of the Caribbean 5 and the Sweetzer real 23 properties (referenced in paragraph 3.2 above) confirmed to Respondent.

24           4.4     The equalization payments provided above are nontaxable, non-modifiable, and 25 non-terminable upon Respondent's death, Petitioner's death, or Petitioner's remarriage and shall not 26 be subject to further order of Court. In the event of Respondent's death prior to satisfaction of the 27 obligations set forth herein, Respondent's estate shall remain liable for the obligations set forth in this 28

1 section regardless of whether Respondent's estate is probated. The equalization payments are
2 intended to be tax-free payments to Petitioner under Internal Revenue Code Section 1041 as a
3 transfer incident to divorce and shall not be deducted by either party or taxable to either party.

4 4.5 The equalization payments are considered a domestic support obligation and shall not
5 be dischargeable in any bankruptcy proceeding filed by Respondent.

6 4.6 The equalization payments are not considered a debt but rather an order, and 7 therefore, in the event that Respondent fails to make the payments, Petitioner shall be entitled to 8 enforce the payments in an enforcement action. The Court shall have jurisdiction to issue appropriate
9 enforcement orders against Respondent if he fails to make the equalization payments.

10 5. MUTUAL WAIVER OF SPOUSAL SUPPORT

11 5.1 Petitioner and Respondent have each forever absolutely waived and released any and 12 all rights which he or she may have to seek spousal support, maintenance, or alimony from the other
13 party at any time. Each party has released and discharged the other from any and all obligations,
14 statutory or otherwise, to provide spousal support, maintenance, or alimony to the other. The parties 15 acknowledge and agree that no spousal support arrearages are owed by either party to the other 16 party.

17 5.2 No Court shall ever obtain or retain jurisdiction to order or award any spousal support
18 payable by either party to the other party at any time, regardless of any circumstances that may arise.
19 This jurisdictional limitation is absolutely non-modifiable and no Court shall ever have the power to 20 set any support payable by Petitioner to Respondent, or by Respondent to Petitioner. Having made
21 this waiver, Petitioner and Respondent acknowledge and agree that each is precluded from making 22 any subsequent claim for spousal support. Petitioner and Respondent acknowledge and agree that 23 this waiver may result in hardship to either one of them at some point in the future, and that each has 24 considered this in electing to fix for all time the rights of Petitioner and Respondent to receive spousal 25 support from the other.

26 ///

27 ///

1           5.3     With the advice of experienced, competent counsel, and with full knowledge of her
2 rights and the effect of the waiver, Petitioner has waived her right to seek any spousal support from 3 Respondent. With the advice of experienced, competent counsel, and with full knowledge of his 4 rights and the effect of the waiver, Respondent has waived his right to seek any spousal support from 5 Petitioner. The Court approves said waiver and based thereon terminates forever its jurisdiction to 6 order spousal support from Petitioner to Respondent or from Respondent to Petitioner.

7           5.4     Each party has represented and acknowledged, for the other to rely upon in entering 8 into this Judgment and for the Court to rely upon in signing this Judgment, that he or she has fully 9 discussed the spousal support provisions of this Judgment with his or her lawyer, that he or she 10 understands that except for their agreement, the Court would have to take into consideration their 11 marital lifestyle, their respective income and needs, the duration of their marriage, and many other 12 factors. The waivers contained in this Judgment are absolute and irrevocable. Once the Court 13 relinquishes jurisdiction over spousal support, the Court can never again, for any reason, consider the 14 subject of, or make an award of, spousal support.

15           5.5     The parties have acknowledged and agreed that they have carefully bargained in this 16 Judgment for the mutual waiver of spousal support, and that said waiver is an integral part of their 17 negotiations, and an integral part of the terms and conditions of this Judgment. The parties have 18 acknowledged, each to the other, that they understand that such relinquishment of the right to spousal
19 support and maintenance is permanent and may not be resurrected for any purpose whatsoever, 20 notwithstanding what their economic or physical condition is now or may be in the future. The 21 parties have knowingly and with the advice of counsel permanently waived any right they may have 22 from the other for support or maintenance or the equivalent thereto. The parties further acknowledge 23 that they are familiar with and have been advised as to the legal import of the case of In re Marriage
24 of Vomacka (1984) 36 Cal.3d 459 and those cases that follow its principle. The provisions herein are 25 intended to comply with the requirements of In re Marriage of Brown (1995) 35 Cal.App.4th 785
26 and In re Marriage of Iberti (1997) 55 Cal.App.4th 1434, to make clear that no Court shall have the 27 authority to award spousal/partner support to Petitioner or Respondent at any time. Thus, the parties

1 acknowledge they each have intended to memorialize the absolute and unequivocal intention of the 2 parties to mutually waive forever their right to receive or claim spousal support or its equivalent from 3 the other for all time.

4 6. ATTORNEYS, ACCOUNTANTS, AND EXPERTS FEES AND COSTS

5 6.1 The parties acknowledge that they agree to cooperate fully with each other in this 6 dissolution proceeding until the entry of the Judgment in this matter in order to minimize the amount
7 of attorneys' fees and costs each party will incur.

8 6.2 Petitioner and Respondent shall each remain responsible for his or her respective 9 attorneys', accountants', and/or other experts' fees and costs incurred through the entry of Judgment,
10 with the exception of a $500,000 contribution by Respondent toward Petitioner's attorneys' fees and 11 costs. Said $500,000 contribution shall be paid directly to Petitioner's attorney Samantha Spector as 12 follows:

13 6.2.1 $100,000 on or before August 31, 2016. Petitioner and Respondent
14 acknowledge that this provision was satisfied and said payment was timely made to Samantha 15 Spector.

16 6.2.2 Respondent shall make additional payments to Samantha Spector on or before
17 the dates listed below, unless the Judgment has not yet been executed by Petitioner and her counsel,
18 in which event the payment shall be delayed until the execution of the Judgment:

19 6.2.3 $150,000 on or before December 1, 2016; and

20 6.2.4 $250,000 on or before February 1, 2017.

21 6.3 The Court retains jurisdiction over the issue of attorneys' fees and costs incurred by 22 either party after the Effective Date.

23 7. TAXES

24 7.1 Petitioner and Respondent acknowledge and agree that each has filed or intends to file 25 separate federal and state income tax returns for calendar year 2015 and throughout the marriage.

26 Each party shall be solely liable for all taxes arising from his or her respective income tax returns 27 including, but not limited to, any taxes, assessments, interest, and penalties due.

1           7.2     Petitioner and Respondent shall continue to file separate federal and state income tax
2 returns (single or married with a new spouse or head of household) each year from and including
3 calendar year 2016. Petitioner and Respondent shall each be responsible for his or her respective 4 income tax liability attributable to calendar year 2016 and each calendar year thereafter (based upon 5 her or his income and deductions shown on his or her separate returns) and each shall be entitled to 6 his or her respective tax refund and credits for 2016 and thereafter.

7           7.3     The parties acknowledge and agree that no less than $10,000,000 in income tax debt
8 accrued during the parties' marriage. Respondent shall assume all such community property and 9 separate property income tax debt, with the exception of any community property income tax debt
10 incurred as a consequence of Petitioner's work efforts during the marriage.

11          7.4     Each party shall pay, indemnify, defend, and hold the other party free and harmless
12 from any and all tax liabilities, penalties and interest attributable to each of the party's respective 13 incomes (defined as community property income earned by each party based on their work efforts 14 during the marriage and their separate property income) for the years prior to the marriage, the 15 calendar year 2015, and all calendar years thereafter. Each party shall pay, indemnify, defend, and 16 hold the other party free and harmless from and against all liability arising from the filing of their 17 respective separate state and federal income tax returns pursuant to this paragraph.

18          7.5     Except as otherwise set forth herein, Petitioner shall assume all income and liabilities
19 (if any) for those assets awarded and confirmed to her in Section 3.1 above and pay any and all taxes
20 for said income and claim any deductions commencing with her 2016 federal and state income tax
21 returns and shall indemnify and hold Respondent harmless therefrom. Except as otherwise set forth
22 herein, Respondent shall assume all income and liabilities (if any) for those assets awarded and 23 confirmed to him in Section 3.1 above and pay any and all taxes for said income and claim any 24 deductions commencing with his 2016 federal and state income tax returns and shall indemnify and 25 hold Petitioner harmless therefrom.

26          7.6     All allocations of property hereunder are transfers of property incident to divorce,
27 within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code Section 1041.
28

1           7.7    Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, each party shall be responsible for, and
2 indemnify and hold the other harmless from, any taxes due as a result of post-judgment
3 ownership, sale, transfer, or other transaction involving rights or assets that each party obtains or 4 retains under this Judgment.

5           7.8    As used in this section, the words "assessment", "tax," "taxes," "deficiency," and 6 "refund" shall include interest and penalties, if any.

7           7.9    Each party has been further advised by his or her counsel that such counsel are not tax
8 experts, that there are certain tax consequences that may follow from this Judgment, and that each
9 party has been advised to seek independent tax counsel to advise them of the tax consequences, and 10 such counsel cannot make representations or render advice with respect to the tax consequences to 11 either party as a result of the terms of this Judgment.

12          7.10   Neither party shall file any tax returns that are inconsistent with the tax consequences
13 contemplated by the parties in this Judgment.

14          7.11   In the event of a dispute, the Court shall retain jurisdiction to make further Orders that 15 are necessary to enforce the provisions of this tax section and/or any other portion of this Judgment.

16 8.    OTHER PROCEEDINGS

17          8.1    Petitioner represents, and Respondent acknowledges and agrees, that on August 16,

2 made his best efforts to request that Doug Stanhope make a positive statement about Petitioner.

3 8.3 Neither Petitioner nor Respondent shall pursue any civil action (including, but not
4 limited to, actions for assault or battery, negligent or intentional infliction of emotional distress, libel,
5 slander, or defamation, and/or any "Marvin" claims arising before the parties' marriage) against the 6 other for any reason in any jurisdiction for anything that occurred for the time period through and 7 including the execution of the DPM on August 15/16, 2016.

8 8.4 Petitioner represents that she has not filed a police report claiming there was any 9 criminal wrongdoing by Respondent. Petitioner shall not be limited in any way with fully complying
10 with any valid legal process or cooperating with any law enforcement investigation. In the event that 11 Petitioner is served with any valid legal process relating in any way to Respondent and/or this 12 dissolution action, Petitioner shall notify Respondent in writing within 48 hours of receipt of that legal 13 process so that Respondent may make any and all appropriate and legal objections to such process as 14 he deems necessary.

15 9. TRANSFER OF PROPERTY

16 9.1 All property divided pursuant to this Judgment shall become the separate property
17 and/or obligation of the party so designated to receive such property as of August 16, 2016. The 19 all debts, liabilities, or obligations in connection with such property.

20 9.2 Each party shall promptly, upon request of the other party or counsel of the other
21 party, execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the other party, his or her heirs, executors,

1 beneficiaries, or own any real or personal property acquired under, before or after the execution of 2 this Judgment, or to carry out the terms of this Judgment.

3 9.3 Should a party required to execute and deliver such documents fail to do so within 4 seven (7) days after demand has been made by the party entitled thereto, then the other party may 5 make an emergency application to the court, accompanied by the minimum of forty-eight (48) hours
6 (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays) telephonic ex-parte notice of such application to 7 the other party, in order to carry out such orders as may be necessary to obtain the execution of said
8 documents and to obtain delivery of same to the party entitled thereto; and, the Clerk of the Court or 9 the Assistant Clerk of the Court may sign in place of the other party pursuant to the request of the 10 party making the application.

11 9.4 The Court retains jurisdiction to make such other and further orders as may be 12 necessary, convenient, or required with respect to the form of any documents which are or may be 13 necessary to effectuate the purpose of this Judgment, and any aggrieved party may make application
14 to the Court for such purposes upon ex parte application on forty-eight (48) hours advance notice as 15 defined above.

16 9.5 Notwithstanding the failure or refusal of either party to execute any such document or 17 instrument, the parties' execution of this Judgment shall constitute a full and complete transfer, 18 conveyance, or assignment of the property herein designated as being transferred, conveyed, or 19 assigned by each party.

20 10. ASSIGNMENT OF DEBTS/OBLIGATIONS

21 10.1 Petitioner and Respondent acknowledge and agree that there are no community debts 22 or obligations due and owing by the parties or either of them not otherwise specifically set forth in 23 this Judgment. In the event there are community obligations or other obligations not otherwise
24 provided for in this Judgment, the party who incurred such obligation(s) shall assume full 25 responsibility to discharge said obligation(s), and shall indemnify and hold the other party free and 26 harmless therefrom.

4 harmless therefrom.

5           10.3 Except as otherwise set forth herein, Respondent hereby assumes and agrees to pay
6 any and all unpaid debts and obligations incurred by Respondent prior to the Date of Marriage,
7 During the Marriage, and subsequent to the Date of Separation, and to indemnify Petitioner and hold 8 her harmless therefrom.

9           10.4 Each party is ordered to indemnify and hold the other harmless from any and all debts
10 and obligations relating to or arising out of the assets confirmed to each respective party
11 under this Judgment, and from all costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, in 12 connection therewith.

13           10.5 Except as otherwise set forth herein, Petitioner warrants to Respondent that 14 Petitioner has not incurred (except as otherwise provided in this Judgment), nor will Petitioner incur, 15 any liability, or obligation for which Respondent is or may be liable. If any claim, action, or 16 proceedings arising out of the representation set forth in this paragraph shall hereafter be brought 17 seeking to hold Respondent liable on account of any liability or obligation for which Petitioner is or 18 may be liable, Petitioner shall, at Petitioner's sole expense, defend Respondent against all such claims
19 or demands and Petitioner shall hold Respondent free and harmless therefrom. Respondent shall be 20 entitled to recover from Petitioner in such action, by cross-complaint, the amount of any Judgment
21 rendered against Respondent and Respondent shall be entitled to recover for all reasonable costs and 22 attorneys', accountants', and other expert fees incurred by Respondent. If Respondent is served with 23 legal process, Respondent may appear through counsel, defend the action, and also cross-complain
24 against Petitioner. Alternatively, at Respondent's option, he may seek redress for any judgment
25 suffered by him, including the aforementioned costs and fees via a Request for Order proceeding.

26           10.6 Except as otherwise set forth herein, Respondent warrants to Petitioner that 27 Respondent has not incurred (except as otherwise provided in this Judgment), nor will Respondent
28

1 incur, any liability or obligation for which Petitioner is or may be liable. If any claim, action or
2 proceedings arising out of the representation set forth in this paragraph shall hereafter be brought
3 seeking to hold Petitioner liable on account of any liability or obligation for which Respondent is or 4 may be liable, Respondent shall, at Respondent's sole expense, defend Petitioner against all such 5 claims or demands and Respondent shall hold Petitioner free and harmless therefrom. Petitioner shall 6 be entitled to recover from Respondent in such action, by cross-complaint, the amount of any 7 Judgment rendered against Petitioner and Petitioner shall be entitled to recover for all reasonable
8 costs and attorneys', accountants', and other expert fees incurred by Petitioner. If Petitioner is served
9 with legal process, Petitioner may appear through counsel, defend the action, and also cross-complain
10 against Respondent. Alternatively, at Petitioner's option, she may seek redress for any judgment
11 suffered by her, including the aforementioned costs and fees via a Request for Order proceeding.

12 10.7 Except as otherwise set forth herein, each party has warranted to the other that he or 13 she shall not hereafter incur any indebtedness chargeable against the other or his or her estate, nor 14 contract any debt or obligation in the name of the other, and each party is ordered to indemnify and 15 hold the other harmless from and against any such indebtedness hereafter incurred or created by such 16 indemnifying party. Except as otherwise specifically set forth in this Judgment, each of the parties 17 hereto warrants to the other that he or she has not incurred any liability or obligation on which the 18 other is or may be liable. Petitioner and Respondent each shall indemnify and hold harmless the other 19 party from and against any such liability or obligations heretofore incurred.

20 10.8 Both parties shall forthwith surrender and cancel all credit cards and charge accounts
21 presently outstanding upon which the other is, would, or may become liable. Each party
22 acknowledges and agrees that each shall be solely responsible for payment of any outstanding credit 23 card or charge account obligations held in his or her respective name.

24 11. DISCLOSURE OF COMMUNITY AND SEPARATE PROPERTY / OMITTED
25 ASSETS

26 11.1 Petitioner and Respondent warrant and represent to the other that they have disclosed
27 in writing in their respective Declarations of Disclosure and in this Judgment all community, 28

1 quasi-community, and separate property assets and liabilities, and that neither of them knows of any
2 real or personal community or separate property except that which is set forth in their Declarations of 3 Disclosure and in this Judgment.

4 11.2 If it shall hereafter be determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction that either
5 Petitioner or Respondent is now possessed of any community and/or quasi-community property not
6 set forth herein or that Petitioner or Respondent has not disclosed herein, or that either of them, since 7 the Date of Separation has made, without the consent of the other, any gift, transfer, conveyance, or 8 assignment of any community property, in the amount of $10,000 or more, not disclosed to the other,
9 the Court shall divide the community and/or quasi-community property pursuant to Family Code
10 Section 2556.

11 11.3 Should either party subsequently learn of any undisclosed community gifts or any 12 after-discovered and/or omitted property, or should any Court so determine that either party failed to 13 disclose gifts of community property or failed to disclose the existence of any community, 14 quasi-community, or separate property, the parties agree that said events and/or determination shall 15 not void or invalidate this Judgment.

16 11.4 None of the parties' rights set forth in this Section 11 shall be limited by the mutual
17 release of claims set forth in Section 12 herein. The Court reserves jurisdiction to make disposition of 18 all after-discovered and/or undistributed community and/or quasi-community property not otherwise
19 disposed of by this Judgment.

3 use of community assets since the Date of Separation.

4           12.1.3 All rights to reimbursement under Family Code Section 2640 or otherwise, for 5 separate property contributed to the acquisition or maintenance of community property, including 6 without limitation all Section 2640 claims which the parties may otherwise have.

12          12.1.6 All claims to reimbursements from the other party and/or community estate
13 regarding loans or payments made to or on behalf of the parties and/or the community estate
14 subsequent to the Date of Separation through the Effective Date by the parties and their attorneys.

15          12.1.7 Any other claims by or against either party, by or against the community estate
16 for any credit, reimbursement, or surcharge, except as otherwise provided for herein.

17          12.1.8 Claims or reimbursements for liability, property, automobile, or other insurance
18 premiums paid in advance of the Effective Date.

19          12.2 The waivers set forth herein supersede all existing court orders, stipulations and 20 agreements between the parties. The parties each have warranted and represented that said waivers
21 are made as part of and in consideration for the division of assets as provided for in this Judgment.

22          12.3 Each party specifically waives any further auditing or accounting rights through the 23 Effective Date with respect to the assets and debts awarded and confirmed to the other party herein.

24          12.4 Neither party hereto shall in any manner, directly or indirectly, contest or oppose the 25 probate of the other's will whether heretofore or hereafter made. Each of the parties hereby waives 26 and releases in favor of the other party all of his or her right to act as administrator or executor or 27 otherwise to administer the other party's estate. Each of the parties hereby waives, relinquishes, 28

1 releases, and forever surrenders in favor of the other party, and to his or her heirs, assigns, and legal
2 representatives, any and all of his or her rights to claims or rights of election to take or acquire under
3 the laws of the State of California, or any other jurisdiction, any property, benefit or interest of any 4 kind, nature or description, under any will or testament of the other, and any and all right to inherit,
5 one from the other, and any and all rights to receive any real or personal property (no matter how or 6 when said property was acquired) of the other upon the death of the other, either under the laws of 7 succession or under community property laws, or by way of dower, curtsy, or otherwise. Petitioner
8 and Respondent waive, release, relinquish, and surrender all such claims and rights, if any, in favor of 9 the heirs of the other party—it being understood that neither of the parties hereto shall have any right
10 to inheritance, descent, or distribution of any kind in or to the estate of the other. Notwithstanding 11 anything to the contrary stated herein, either party hereto may, by will executed subsequent to the 12 date of the signing of this Judgment, make provisions contrary to those herein stated.

13           12.5 Except as set forth in Section 4.4, each party has relinquished the right to act as 14 executor or administrator of the estate of the other, all right to inherit from the other and all rights to 15 receive in any manner any property of the other upon the death of the other, either under the laws of 16 succession or under community property laws, or by dower, curtesy, family allowance, probate 17 homestead, or any statutory substitute therefore, or otherwise, except as devisee, legatee, or 18 beneficiary under any Last Will and Testament or other instrument executed after the Effective Date 19 by either party herein or when the other party may be named in such capacity.

20 13. MUTUAL RELEASE OF CLAIMS

21           13.1 Except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Judgment, and except for the claims,
22 obligations, and rights in this Judgment created against or in favor of either of the parties hereto,
23 which claims, obligations, and rights are expressly reserved from the operation of this Section 13,
24 Petitioner and Respondent have released the other and all of his or her respective agents,
25 representatives, attorneys, heirs, insurers, assigns and successors-in-interest, from any and all claims,
26 demands, damages, debts, liabilities, obligations, accounts, reckonings, allegations, costs, expenses,
27 liens, actions, causes, and causes of action, of any kind and nature whatsoever through and including 28

1 the date of entry of this Judgment. Each of the parties agrees and understands that there is a risk that
2 subsequent to the execution or entry of this Judgment, either of them may incur or suffer loss,
3 damage, or injuries which are in some way caused by, or related to, the matters released herein, which
4 are unknown or unanticipated at the time this Judgment is executed or entered. Each party hereto
5 assumes said risk and agrees to hold the other party harmless therefrom.

6 13.2 Notwithstanding the terms of this Section 13, nothing contained in this Judgment shall 7 be interpreted or construed as a waiver of the parties' rights of full disclosure of community and 8 quasi-community property under California Family Code Section 2120-2128. The Court retains 9 jurisdiction over such non-disclosure claims pursuant to California Family Code Section 2556 with 10 respect to enforcement of said Family Code Sections as set forth above.

11 13.3 Except for the benefits, rights, and obligations created by this Judgment or reserved
12 herein and except as to any action to enforce this Judgment, it is the intention of the parties that this 13 Judgment shall be a full and final accord and satisfaction of all claims, known and unknown, which 14 each may have against the other. The parties hereby waive Civil Code Section 1542, which provides 15 that "A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to 16 exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must 17 have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor."

18 14. ADVICE OF COUNSEL

19 14.1 Petitioner has acknowledged and represented that she has been represented by 20 Samantha Spector of Spector Law and Pierce O'Donnell of Greenberg, Glusker, Fields, Claman &
21 Machtinger LLP in the negotiations for and in the preparation of this Judgment and in connection 22 with the action for the dissolution of the marriage of the parties.

23 14.2 Respondent has acknowledged and represented that he has been represented by Laura 24 A. Wasser and Samantha Klein of Wasser, Cooperman & Mandles, P.C., Patricia Glaser and Kerry
25 Garvis Wright of Glaser, Glaser, Weil, Fink, Howard, Avchen & Shapiro, LLP, in the negotiations
26 for and in the preparation of this Judgment and in connection with the action for the dissolution of the 27 marriage of the parties.

1           14.3 The parties acknowledge and agree that they have not been told that any provision of 2 this Judgment is "standard." The parties have reviewed each and every one of the provisions of this
3 Judgment and have negotiated those provisions as necessary to reflect their agreement and to meet
4 their needs.

5 15. WAIVER OF FURTHER FORMAL DISCOVERY PROCEEDINGS

6           15.1 In negotiating the economic terms of this Judgment, each of the parties acknowledges
7 that he or she has had the opportunity to determine, both on a voluntary basis and through formal
8 discovery procedures, all of the financial circumstances of the other party, and the income which each
9 is likely to derive from the property acquired by each hereunder. Concerning the nature, extent, and 10 value of community property (assets and liabilities), and the parties' interest therein, the parties state 11 that each has relied upon his or her own respective knowledge, opinion, and evaluations of such 12 matters based on the other party's Disclosure Statements signed under penalty of perjury, that each
13 has read and understood his or her respective rights under this Judgment, and that each has sought 14 and obtained separate counseling from other persons that each selected concerning said matters.

15           15.2 Each of the parties has warranted and represented that each party desired a settlement
16 of all of the matters set forth in this Judgment and that each party has chosen not to exercise all of the 17 formal and informal discovery rights available to him or her beyond what he or she has already 18 pursued, including without limitation, serving special interrogatories, form interrogatories, requests 19 for production of documents, requests for admissions, issuing subpoenas, taking depositions of one 20 another and of third parties, and/or obtaining further expert appraisals of real, personal, and/or 21 business properties and assets.

22           15.3 Each party has knowingly and expressly waived and released his or her respective 23 rights to complete full discovery, both formal and informal, relating to any issues and procedures and 24 to investigate beyond what he or she has already pursued, the nature, extent, and value of community 25 property (assets and liabilities) and the parties' interest therein, and the financial circumstances of the 26 other party. Each party has accepted the economic terms of this Judgment with full knowledge of his 27 or her respective rights in light of the foregoing waiver.

28

1           15.4 The parties acknowledge that by entering into a negotiated settlement of all financial
2 issues between them, each has knowingly waived his or her right to a full evidentiary hearing on the 3 merits with respect to those issues. Each party has acknowledged that each has been advised by his 4 or her respective counsel that the economic benefits conferred on each by this Judgment may be 5 better or worse than the economic benefits that would be conferred on each after such a full 6 evidentiary hearing or trial and that the full impact of this Judgment may not be known for many 7 years.

8           15.5 Each party entered into this Judgment freely and voluntarily, and had sufficient time
9 to consider the terms of the Judgment, and to consult with forensic accountants, other experts, and 10 his or her counsel about this Judgment. Prior to executing this Judgment, each party expressly 11 waived and released his or her right to conduct any further formal or informal discovery as set forth
12 herein. Each party elected to proceed with the negotiations and settlement contained in this Judgment
13 without resort to any further formal or informal procedures prior to executing this Judgment.

14           15.6 Each party has acknowledged that California law imposes a fiduciary duty on married
15 persons regarding the accurate and complete disclosure of all assets, liabilities, and investment 16 opportunities.

17       16. VOLUNTARY AGREEMENT

18           16.1 Each of the parties has acknowledged that he or she is fully aware of the content and 19 legal effect of this Judgment and that each party has acknowledged for himself or herself, and for the 20 other and the Court to rely upon, that he or she has entered into the settlement of this action
21 voluntarily and free of any duress, undue influence, or presently known fraud, and that both parties
22 are competent to enter into their agreement that formed the basis of this Judgment.

23           16.2 Petitioner acknowledges (a) that Respondent has obtained no advantage over her as a
24 result of this Judgment, (b) that there is sufficient consideration for Petitioner's entry into the 25 settlement agreement that is set forth in this Judgment, and (c) that Petitioner was not under any 26 undue influence in entering into this Judgment.

27       ///

1           16.3 Respondent acknowledges (a) that Petitioner has obtained no advantage over him as a
2 result of this Judgment, (b) that there is sufficient consideration for Respondent's entry into the 3 settlement agreement that forms the basis for this Judgment, and (c) that Respondent was not under 4 any undue influence in entering into this Judgment.

5           16.4 The parties further acknowledge (a) that all negotiations leading to this Judgment were 6 carried out at arm's length, (b) that each recognizes that his or her interests were adverse during such 7 negotiations and (c) that the confidential relationship arising out of the marriage of the parties did 8 exist during such negotiations.

9 17. AGREEMENT TO LIVE SEPARATE AND APART

10           17.1 Except as otherwise provided in this Judgment, the parties shall be free from 11 interference, authority, or control by the other and each may conduct, carry on, and engage in any 12 employment, business, or trade which to him or her shall seem advisable for his or her sole and 13 separate use and benefit without and free from any direct or indirect control, restraint, or interference 14 by the other party.

15 18. CREDITOR CLAIMS

16           18.1 Except as otherwise provided in this Judgment, each party shall be solely liable for and 17 shall indemnify, render a defense, and hold the other party harmless from all claims, demands, debts,
18 obligations, liabilities, income and capital gain taxes, real property taxes, costs, expenses, damages,
19 and liens arising heretofore or hereafter from the businesses, real properties, and all other assets being 20 awarded and/or confirmed to that party as his or her sole and separate property. Each party warrants 21 and represents to the other that he or she is not aware of any claim, debt, or liability not mentioned in 22 this Judgment to which the other party may have liability.

23           18.2 Petitioner and Respondent acknowledge that each has been advised by his or her
24 respective counsel as follows: Although an obligation based upon a contract is assigned to one party 25 as part of the division of the community, in the event that the party to whom the obligation was 26 assigned defaults on the contract, the creditor may have a cause of action not only against the 27 assigned party, but against the other party as well.

28

1 18.3 Petitioner and Respondent accordingly recognize that this Judgment between them is
2 not binding upon third parties. In the event that any third party seeks to hold one party liable for the 3 debts or obligations that the other has assumed by this Judgment, the indebted party herein shall 4 defend and/or compromise and settle any lawsuits, claims, demands, or actions brought at his or her
5 sole expense, and further, pay, indemnify, render a defense, and hold the non-indebted party harmless
6 from any and all such claims, demands, debts, obligations, liabilities, costs, expenses, causes of action,
7 and judgments of every kind, nature, and description that the non-indebted party may be caused to 8 incur to defend himself or herself, including payments for all reasonable attorneys', accountants', and 9 other experts' fees, costs, and expenses incurred by the non-indebted party. Except for the 10 signatories hereto, no third parties are intended to be benefitted by this Judgment and no such third
11 parties shall have any standing to enforce this Judgment, nor shall they be able to assert any right, 12 title, or interest in the assets herein identified.

13 19. STIPULATION RE: APPOINTMENT OF JUDICIAL OFFICER/JUDGE PRO TEM

14 19.1 The parties acknowledge their intent to cooperate with one another and to resolve all
15 issues, if possible, without further litigation. Other than entry of the instant Judgment, the parties
16 stipulate that Judge Louis M. Meisinger, Retired, shall be appointed as a judge pro tem for all 17 purposes in this case. Accordingly, in the event that the parties encounter disputes as to any 18 provision herein, the parties agree that they will submit any and all disputes for mediation and 19 resolution to Judge Louis M. Meisinger, Retired as a judge pro tem, or if Judge Meisinger is 20 unavailable for any reason to another mutually agreed upon retired judicial officer.

21 19.2 After the entry of this Judgment, the parties shall immediately file a stipulation for an 22 order appointing Retired Judge Louis Meisinger as the judicial officer to resolve all disputes between 23 the parties arising out of or relating to the Judgment.

24 19.3 The parties agree that Judge Meisinger shall adjudicate any claims that the parties may 25 have relating to alleged breaches of the DPM.

26 19.4 To the extent possible, the parties shall seek to keep confidential all proceedings,
27 pleadings orders, and the like relating to any adjudication by Judge Meisinger.

1 20. CONFIDENTIALITY

2 20.1 Except for documents previously filed with the Court, neither Petitioner nor 3 Respondent shall discuss, publish or post or cause to be discussed, published or posted, directly or 4 indirectly, any information pertaining to the parties' premarital relationship, marriage or this
5 dissolution action on the Internet (including, but not limited to, social media applications, websites,
6 blogs, news periodicals, etc.) or in the media in any manner. Petitioner and Respondent shall also 7 instruct their respective agents, friends, family members, and representatives not to communicate
8 and/or act in any way contrary to this provision.

9 20.2 The confidentiality provisions set forth herein shall be fully enforceable by each party.
10 The parties each expressly acknowledge and agree that the confidentiality provisions in this Judgment
11 are of a special, unique, unusual, and extraordinary character and that a breach of any confidentiality
12 provision of this Judgment shall necessarily result in irreparable injury to the other party for which no
13 adequate remedy is available at law and which is not fully compensable in money damages alone. The 14 parties further acknowledge and agree that in the event of any such breach or threat thereof, the 15 non-breaching party may be entitled to injunctive and any other equitable relief as may be necessary to 16 prevent, remedy, and/or mitigate the adverse effects of such actual or threatened breach, in addition 17 to any legal remedies, such as disgorgement of profits received or damages to which said party may 18 be entitled. The parties acknowledge and agree that the non-breaching party also shall be entitled to 19 seek recovery of any and all reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred to pursue such remedies.

20 20.3 Each of the parties hereto acknowledges, agrees, warrants, represents and covenants
21 that, except as may be required by law, each said party shall refrain from making or causing to be 22 made, and agrees not to make or cause to be made, any derogatory, disparaging, critical or 23 accusatory statements, either directly or indirectly, express or implied, oral or written, concerning the 24 other party, whether said statements are believed to be true or not.

25 20.4 The foregoing shall not be construed or enforced in a manner that would restrict the 26 disclosing party from responding truthfully in response to any inquiry required by legal process.

27 ///

1 21. MISCELLANEOUS

2 21.1 Each party has been advised by his or her counsel that such counsel are not tax
3 experts, that there are certain tax consequences that may follow from this Judgment, and that each
4 party has been advised to seek independent tax counsel to advise them of the tax consequences, and
5 such counsel cannot make representations or render advise with respect to the tax consequences to 6 either party as a result of the terms of this Judgment.

7 21.1.1 In negotiating the economic terms of this Judgment, each of the parties
8 acknowledges he or she has been advised by his or her counsel that he or she has had the opportunity 9 to determine, both on a voluntary basis and through formal and/or informal discovery procedures, all 10 of the financial circumstances of the other party, and the income which each is likely to derive from 11 the property acquired by each hereunder. Each of the parties has warranted and represented that each 12 party desired a settlement of all of the matters set forth in this Judgment and that each party has 13 chosen not to exercise any formal or informal discovery rights available to him or her prior to 14 executing this Judgment. Each party knowingly waives his or her rights to discovery, both formal and 15 informal, and to investigate fully the financial circumstances of the other party prior to executing this 16 Judgment. The parties also acknowledge that by entering into a settlement of all financial issues
17 between them, each has knowingly waived her or his right to a full evidentiary hearing on the merits
18 with respect to those issues. Each party acknowledges that each has been advised by his or her 19 counsel that the economic benefits conferred on each by this Judgment may be better or worse than 20 the economic benefits that would be conferred after such a full evidentiary hearing. Nevertheless, 21 both parties have considered the risk of litigation and the costs thereof, and have decided that it is 22 preferable to settle all the issues rather than to be subjected to the uncertainties associated with the 23 litigation process.

24 21.1.2 The parties acknowledge that they have been advised that prior to entering into 25 an agreement, including, without limitation, prior to signing this Judgment, they had and have the 26 right to value any and all assets owned by either of them, in whole or in part. Such assets include,
27 without limitation, companies (whether sole proprietorship, "C" corporation, "S" corporation,

1 "LLC," partnerships, DBA, or otherwise); professional practices; real property; intellectual property
2 (including catalogs of such property); investments (of any kind); and defined benefit pension plans and
3 other deferred compensation. To the extent that the parties chose not to value an asset or assets, the 4 parties acknowledge that each party made such decision freely, voluntarily, without any pressure or 5 duress from anyone, and with the knowledge that they could, in fact, value any and all assets prior to 6 entering into an agreement and prior to signing this Judgment. Pursuant to the parties' agreement,
7 neither party shall have the right to set aside or obviate any of the financial terms or conditions of this 8 Judgment by reason of their voluntary decisions not to value an asset or assets.

9           21.1.3 Based upon each party having been advised of the above described rights to 10 further formal discovery proceedings, upon execution of this Judgment, neither party's counsel shall 11 be responsible in any manner whatsoever with regard to the nature, extent, condition or value of any 12 of the assets and obligations, be they community, separate, confirmed by, or disposed of by way of 13 this Judgment.

14           21.1.4 Each party acknowledged for himself or herself, and for the other and the 15 Court to rely upon, that he or she has relied solely on his or her own personal judgment as to all
16 matters pertaining to the matters encompassed by this Judgment and that he or she did not rely on any 17 statement, warranty or representation of any other party, except as expressly set forth in this 18 Judgment.

19           21.1.5 Neither party shall have the right to set aside or obviate any of the financial 20 terms or conditions of this Judgment by reason of the foregoing waivers and decisions not to conduct 21 further discovery, appraisals and investigations.

22           21.2 The parties expressly intend and agree that this Judgment is a written settlement
23 agreement within the meaning of Evidence Code Section 1123 and agree that it is not made 24 inadmissible, or protected from disclosure, by provisions of Evidence Code Section 1115 et. seq.
25 because it is signed by the settling parties and (a) it provides that it is admissible or subject to 26 disclosure, or words to that effect; (b) it provides that it is enforceable or binding or words to that 27 effect, and; (c) all parties to this Judgment expressly agree to its disclosure. The parties further agree
28

1 that communications between each party and his or her counsel are not made inadmissible by 2 Evidence Code Section 1115 et. seq.; provided, that such communications are and remain privileged
3 under the attorney-client privilege. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to waive or 4 limit the attorney-client privilege or the attorney work-product doctrine.

5 21.3 Each party warrants and represents to the other party that he or she has not since the 6 Date of Separation transferred any interest in any property nor encumbered any property awarded to 7 the other party pursuant to this Judgment.

8 21.4 The parties understand and acknowledge that there is a possibility that an asset
9 awarded and/or confirmed to either of them hereunder may be sold after the Effective Date by the 10 parties for an amount either substantially greater or substantially less than the value now believed or 11 perceived by either party to be the fair market value of such asset. Each party expressly waives and 12 releases any claim against the other arising out of such sale. Each party further acknowledges that,
13 except as set forth in this Judgment and the parties' respective Disclosure Statements, neither has 14 warranted to the other the value of any asset awarded and/or confirmed by this Judgment.

15 21.5 The party receiving specific property under this Judgment shall be entitled to, and the 16 other party shall transfer and assign to him or her, all right, title, and interest in the property together 17 with any existing insurance in the property, and the benefits, if any, of premiums previously paid on 18 that insurance, and shall be solely responsible for the payment of all premiums due thereafter under 19 the insurance policy terms if the party decides, in his or her sole discretion, to maintain said policy in 20 force.

21 21.6 This Judgment has been prepared and reviewed by the joint efforts of the respective 22 attorneys for Petitioner and Respondent. This Judgment shall be interpreted fairly and simply, and 23 not strictly for or against either party.

24 21.7 The parties have had an opportunity to review and revise this Judgment and are 25 satisfied with its terms; the normal rules of construction to the effect that any ambiguities in this 26 Judgment are to be resolved against the drafting party shall not be employed in the interpretation of 27 this Judgment.

MARRIAGE OF DEPP
STIPULATED JUDGMENT OF DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE
L.A.S.C. CASE NO. BD641052

jdg.091416 - A.v3.wpd

1 21.8 Each party is aware of California Family Code Section 2024 which states as follows:

2 Dissolution or annulment of your marriage may automatically cancel your 3 spouse's rights under your will, trust, retirement benefit plan, power of 4 attorney, pay on death bank account, transfer on death vehicle
5 registration, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy,
6 and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel your spouse's
7 rights as beneficiary of your life insurance policy. If these are not the 8 results that you want, you must change your will, trust, account
9 agreement, or other similar document to reflect your actual wishes.

10 Dissolution or annulment of your marriage may also automatically cancel
11 your rights under your spouse's will, trust, retirement benefit plan, power
12 of attorney, pay on death bank account, transfer on death vehicle
13 registration, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy,
14 and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel your rights 15 as beneficiary of your spouse's life insurance policy.

16 You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit
17 accounts, insurance policies, retirement benefit plans, and credit reports 18 to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take 19 any other actions in view of the dissolution or annulment of your 20 marriage, or your legal separation.

21 21.9 In the event that either party has executed a Durable Power of Attorney for Health
22 Care pursuant to California Probate Code Section 4670 et seq., and has specified his or her spouse as 23 the designated agent, upon dissolution of marriage, the designated spouse will become ineligible, as a 24 matter of law, to act as the designated agent. For such purposes, it may be necessary for either or 25 both of the parties to appoint a new designated agent for purposes of a Durable Power of Attorney
26 for Health Care.

27 21.10 In the event that any portion or provision or clause or term of this Judgment shall be 28 held illegal, unenforceable, void, or voidable by any court, each of the remaining provisions/terms hereof shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect.

21.11 No waiver of the breach of any of the terms or provisions of this Judgment shall be construed to be a waiver of any preceding or succeeding breach of the same or any other provision hereof.

21.12 Petitioner and Respondent each warrant and represent that neither has relied on any oral or written representations made by anyone not contained in the Judgment.

1           21.13 Petitioner and Respondent each acknowledge, for himself or herself, that he or she has 2 been advised that California Family Code Sections 721 and 1100 provide that a fiduciary and 3 confidential relationship exists between spouses which "imposes a duty of the highest good faith and 4 fair dealing on each spouse and neither shall take any unfair advantage of the other," that this
5 obligation shall continue "until such time as the assets and liabilities have been divided by the parties
6 or by a court," that said "duty includes the obligation to make full disclosure to the other spouse of all 7 material facts and information regarding the existence, characterization and valuation of all assets in 8 which the community has or may have an interest and debts for which the community is or may be 9 liable, and to provide equal access to all information, records and books that pertain to the value and 10 character of those assets and debts, upon request," that Family Code Section 2100(c) imposes upon 11 each party a "continuing duty to immediately, fully and accurately update and augment" facts and 12 information regarding the existence, characterization, and valuation of assets and liabilities in which 13 the community has or may have an interest to the extent there have been material changes relative to 14 such assets and liabilities, and that pursuant to Family Code Section 2102, such updates must be 15 "immediate, full and accurate" to the extent there have been any material changes.

16           21.14 Petitioner and Respondent agree that this Judgment constitutes the entire agreement
17 and understanding between Petitioner and Respondent with respect to the subject matter hereof, and 18 supersedes and replaces all prior agreements and understandings whether oral or written. There are 19 no other agreements, understandings, statements, representations, or warranties of the parties, oral or 20 written, except as expressly set forth herein.

21           21.15 This Judgment, and each of the provisions herein, may not be altered, amended,
22 terminated, modified, or waived, in whole or in part, except by an instrument in writing executed by 23 both of the parties hereto with the same formality as this Judgment, or by further order of the Court.

24           21.16 Petitioner and Respondent agree that this Judgment is executed and intended to be 25 performed in the State of California, and the laws of the State of California shall govern its 26 interpretation and effect.
